Heavy Voting Forecast Here For Tomorrow

25,526 Voters Qualified To Cast Ballots

Quachita parish registration rolls total 25,526 for Tuesday's general election, Mrs. Mae Lucky, parish registrar of voters, said today.

The total, completed last week, is the largest since the 1956 total of 22,000 shortly before the registrar's office began a clean up of the rolls shortly after permanent registration was put into effect.

Mrs. Lucky pointed out that more than 600 persons have been removed from the voting rolls since the state general election in April because they had failed to vote in the past four years. These removals were determined by the last dated signatures on the voting sheets of the polling places.

"Every person who has a name on the registration rolls must sign the registration forms," Mrs. Lucky said. "These signatures are countersigned and dated by one of the commissioners at the poll. The last date on this list was used to determine the removals."

The registrar stressed that the law required such action.

Mrs. Lucky also pointed out that many persons, although they have moved to other places in the parish, must still vote at the old polling place, unless the registrar's office has been notified of the change of address. Workers in the registrar's office have attempted

Dynamite Bomb Kills Young Girl On Harlem Train

NEW YORK (AP)—A dynamite bomb exploded with a thunderous, shattering roar aboard a subway train dead under Harlem Sunday night, killing a young girl and injuring 18 other persons.

Police did not believe it was the work of New York's "Sunday bomber," who has been blamed for four other explosions since Oct. 2.

The bomb had been hidden under a straw-covered seat at the rear of the fifth car of a six-car Independent line express train. The southbound train was halted at the 125th Street station in the heart of Harlem when the bomb exploded.

BLOWN TO BITS

The force of the blast bulged out the steel sides of the car, gouged out a two-foot hole in the floor, shattered every window but one. Big chunks of concrete were ripped from the station platform.

About 30 passengers were aboard the fatal car. A girl sitting directly over the bomb, was killed—her legs torn off. Two youths sitting across the aisle were injured critically.

The girl was identified as Sandra Breland, 15, of Brooklyn. Her handbag was blown to bits.

Cordell Jones, 18, was just boarding the train when the bomb exploded. He was blown across the platform and onto the southbound local tracks. He suffered head, neck and back injuries.

"It looked like the seats blew into the roof," he said.

John Cohn, 30, the motorman said he was waiting for a local to pull in "when all of a sudden I heard the blast."

Gallup Poll Shows Neck-And-Neck

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—The Gallup poll's final nationwide survey of the presidential race shows following division of the popular vote among likely voters:

Kennedy-Johnson 49 per cent. Nixon-Lodge 48 per cent. Undecided 3 per cent.

George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion, gave the figures in a copy-right story.

Gallup also said in part that considering only those voters who expressed a preference, the division would be:

Kennedy-Johnson 51 per cent. Nixon-Lodge 49 per cent.

These results are based upon interviewing conducted during the period Nov. 1 through Nov. 4. The final survey, therefore, does not register the impact of President Eisenhower's campaigning in the final days nor the last-minute appeals and efforts on television by Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Nixon TV Telethon Today; Raps Rival In Dairy-Farm Area

Vice President Richard M. Nixon stages an unprecedented nationwide four-hour telethon from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. (CST) today and will take on the role of "answer man" during that time.

The move is aimed at capturing those voters who at the 11th hour may still be undecided.

Nixon will appear on the American Broadcasting Company to answer questions called in by voters during the period of the telethon. The number for views to call will be flashed on the screen. Some 8,000 phone calls could be handled by Nixon's headquarters in Detroit during that time. However, it was pointed out that Nixon could not answer all of them, but that he would get to as many as possible.

Workers for Nixon throughout the nation were urged to listen in and to call their friends to do so also.

Kennedy Hits Nixon Plan For Peace

DETROIT (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon kept his stage guns trained today on his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, as the presidential campaign neared a close. Facing a rigorous day, including four hours of an unprecedented answering of voter's questions on nationwide television, Nixon lit into Kennedy at the first stop on a program which will keep rushing around until he gets back to his home state of California at midnight.

The first stop, after an overnight flight from Alaska, was at Madison Wis., where the vice president got a warm welcome on a cold morning at an airport rally.

On arrival at Detroit for a speech downtown and then the TV question-and-answer marathon, Nixon put out a statement reviewing his own campaign pledges and jibing at Kennedy's.

25 PER CENT

"He voices his concern for the people," Nixon said. "And then he advocates a Niagara of spending which would be in the end either raise their taxes or prices, or both, and would weaken their insurance policies, pensions and Social Security."

"He has advanced a program for Latin America which would in the end make the United States a Pariah in this hemisphere and could start a war."

"He issued a statement that he

WITH KENNEDY in New England (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy opened the last day of his presidential campaign today with a charge that Vice President Richard M. Nixon believes that peace can be secured "by parades and visits to the Soviet Union."

He said in Providence, R.I., that the productive power of the United States "put to great purposes" is the only real answer to the struggle with the Communists.

That, Kennedy said, is the "basic issue" of the campaign.

Marathon Election Drive Near Close

WASHINGTON (AP)—With the marathon campaign reaching a crescendo, nearly 67 million Americans prepared today to pick a new president.

Whether their choice in Tuesday's election would be Democratic Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts or Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon appeared to hinge primarily on the decision of a majority of the voters in the seven largest states.

These states—New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, California and Texas—have 305 of the 360 electoral votes needed for election. To win, either candidate probably will need to carry most of them. New York and California

Congo Boss To Demand U.N. Pullout

Will Settle For Withdrawal Of Two Nationalities

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—Congo President Joseph Kasavubu was flying to New York today demanding that U.N. soldiers from Ghana and Guinea get out of his chaotic country at once.

Stopping over in Paris briefly, Kasavubu told a news conference he would demand the withdrawal of all U.N. soldiers. Then he indicated he would be satisfied with the immediate withdrawal of the soldiers from Ghana and Guinea.

Ex-Con Confesses Drowning Judge, Wife In Atlantic

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—An ex-convict today admitted winning the confidence of Circuit Judge and Mrs. C. E. Chillingworth by a trick, then kidnapping them and drowning them in the Atlantic.

The ex-convict, Floyd A. Holzapfel, said he and a Negro moonshiner, Bobby Lincoln of West Palm Beach, were paid for the slayings by Joseph A. Peel Jr., a former municipal judge who was said to be afraid Chillingworth planned to have him disbarred.

After the slayings, Holzapfel said, Peel then wanted to arrange for the murder of State Atty. Phil O'Connell of West Palm Beach who was investigating the case and now is prosecuting Peel and Holzapfel.

Nixon Would Sign Tideland Bill

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon today reported giving assurance he would sign a bill okaying equal tideland boundaries for Gulf states.

The Times-Picayune, in a dispatch from its Washington correspondent Paul Wootan, quoted Nixon as saying:

"If Congress will pass a bill authorizing the equalization of the seaward boundaries of the Gulf States, I will sign such a bill."

The quotation was transmitted to Wootan by telephone, the newspaper said. The inquiry was prompted by conflicting statements made in Washington Sunday as to Nixon's position on the tideland boundaries.

It was explained further that the Vice President must recognize that the Supreme Court has acted in this matter.

The newspaper, which is backing Nixon, said assurance already have been given that legislation equalizing the boundaries would be taken by early in January by a House subcommittee.

Widow Of '20 Nominee Dies

DAYTON, Ohio (UPI)—Mrs. Margaretta Cox, widow of the late James M. Cox, 1920 Democratic presidential nominee, died Sunday when a fire, apparently started from a cigarette she was smoking in bed, occurred in her second floor apartment. She was 70.

Mrs. Cox was pronounced dead on arrival at Miami Valley Hospital here.

Her late husband served three terms as Ohio governor, 1913-1915 and from 1917 to 1921. He was defeated for the presidency in 1920 by another Ohioan, Warren G. Harding. Cox also owned newspapers and radio and television stations here and in Atlanta, Miami and Springfield, Ohio.

Oakwood Police Capt. James Walker said Mrs. Cox apparently sat down on her bed to smoke the cigarette after drawing water for a bath. He said the cigarette ignited the pillow and bed covering, awakening her, and she staggered to the bath room floor where she collapsed.

Student Fasting Till Election Over

BATON ROUGE (AP)—A 31-year-old attorney, who says he is officially a member of the Plains Presbyterian Church, is fasting until Tuesday's presidential election.

James Whitehead, government graduate student at Louisiana State University, Saturday said he started his "soul force" fast to get a free discussion of the issue of religion in the presidential race by ministers and priests.

Whitehead says he is taking only water as nourishment.

11 Lose Lives In State Accidents

By United Press International

Violent death snuffed out the lives of at least 11 persons in Louisiana over the weekend period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday. Traffic mishaps killed six, one died of a fall, two burned to death, one drowned and one was hit by a train.

A Negro race-horse groom identified as Emile Blertou, 32, burned to death Sunday night when he apparently became trapped in his sleeping quarters at the Fair Grounds race track in New Orleans.

Demos Virtual Cinch To Hold Congress Edge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Barring a big political upset, both houses of Congress are expected to retain Democratic majorities in Tuesday's election.

The Democrats are virtually assured control of the Senate even before the voting starts.

In the House even Democratic partisans generally were willing to concede some Republican gains. But only the most optimistic Republicans would go so far as to predict a GOP majority.

Democratic politicians for the most part estimated they might have a net loss of 10 to 15 seats in the House. Their Republican counter-parts insisted their party would have a minimum gain of 25 or 30 seats.

Southside Tot Killed By Mail Delivery Truck

A two and one-half-year old child was fatally injured about 10:30 a.m. today when he was run over by a delivery truck of the Monroe post office. The accident occurred in front of 1616 South Eleventh street, the child's home.

Deal on arrival at the St. Francis Hospital was Andrew White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick R. White.

The driver of the vehicle was J. R. Walker, delivery man for the post office.

Quachita parish Coroner Dr. John P. Burton said the child died of a crushed skull.

At noon, the Monroe police department was still investigating the accident.

Funeral services are incomplete but will be under the direction of Hixson Brothers Funeral Home of Monroe.

Louisiana Senate Will Act Today

By SAM HANNA Staff Writer

BATON ROUGE — Gov. Jimmie H. Davis' legislative plans to block school integration cleared the House Sunday and will be aired before a Senate committee today.

In addition, the House, in a marathon session, voted in favor of a joint resolution setting up an eight-man committee of Legislators to operate Orleans public schools.

This resolution, sponsored by Davis' floor leaders, would be comprised of five representatives and three senators to run the schools once the school board was removed from office because of integration.

The House passed the resolution as a climax of a lingering session Sunday after the New Orleans delegation presented scattered opposition to 29 bills drafted to prevent integration of the New Orleans public schools.

After passage, the legislation was sent to the Senate where Judiciary Committee will hold a hearing at 1 p.m. today.

The House adjourned until 11 a.m. Tuesday when the chamber is expected to concur in Senate action and then go home to vote.

Predict Warmer Weather Tuesday

Suspension Of Participants Is Ordered

Union Demands Better Pay, More Benefits

NEW YORK (AP) — A teachers' strike hit New York's huge school system today, upsetting class routines in many cases, setting off rebel pupil demonstrations and jeopardizing jobs of the strikers.

It was the first such walkout in the city's history.

School Supt. John J. Theobald declared that all teachers participating were suspended forthwith. By union claims, this amounted to more than 15,000 of the city's 40,000 teachers.

The schools generally managed to keep going, in one way or another, but in many cases, activities were disrupted.

Some pupils made it a holiday. For the most part, the city's million pupils showed up.

"There are some difficulties," Theobald said. "But everything is operating."

SHARP WORDS

The striking United Federation of Teachers said that of the city's 837 schools, 408 of them were being picketed, and 251 were either closed or operating by sending students into auditoriums and cafeterias.

Police said 250 schools were being picketed, but none was closed.

At one downtown Manhattan high school, a window was smashed.

Sharp words flew between Theobald and Charles Cogen, UFT president.

Sam H. Aul, 78, Dies; Funeral Services Tuesday

Sam Henry Aul, 109 Malvern street, retired building inspector for the City of Monroe, died early Monday morning shortly after suffering a stroke. He was 78.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the chapel of Hixson Brothers Funeral Home with the Rev. Isaac A. Patton, pastor of the Stone Avenue Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will follow in the Riverview cemetery.

Mr. Aul retired last year after serving as city building inspector for 25 years. He was a native of Quachita parish and had resided here all his life.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and Woodman of the World.

Mr. Aul is survived by his widow, Mrs. Effie Aul; one son, W. B. Aul, lieutenant with Troop F, Louisiana state police, Monroe; one daughter, Mrs. Roy Brice, Arcadia; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Cora Gibbs, Monroe.

Canaveral Space Test Canceled

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The civilian space agency today postponed a proposed Mercury capsule test launching.

It had been scheduled as a crucial test intended to lead to a similar flight by an American astronaut within four months.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the launching of a capsule aboard a Redstone rocket was postponed "because of altitude control difficulty."

A new firing date has not been scheduled, NASA said.

Judges Announce Winners In Art Display Sunday

A crowd estimated at about 350 persons turned out yesterday at an open house to view handicrafts produced by students at Southside High School.

It was the first such event held at Southside, state training institute for boys.

Judges for the handicrafts were Mrs. V. S. Garrett, of the Monroe Recreation Department; Miss Carolyn Freeman of Ouachita Parish Junior High School, and M-Sgt. Q. N. Underwood, station commander of the local Army recruiting station.

Winners in Mrs. Avis Phillips classes were divided into five classes, clay figurines, clay molds, free hand pieces, general art and scrap craft.

Walking off with first place honors in the clay figurine division was Clifford Breaux, Lafayette, while Levy Blanchard, Eunice, placed second, and Billy Temple, Winnsboro, ranked third. Honorable mention went to James Carr, Columbia.

In the clay mold section, Carr topped the first place slot, with Bennie Brown, Shreveport, taking second place honors. Third place went to Virgil Brown, Donaldsonville, and Leonard Gonzales, Garyville, rated honorable mention.

William Rhodes, New Orleans, was named first place winner in the free hand division. Jerry Gaudet, Norco, was second, and David Dwyer, Baton Rouge, rated third. Laverne Dearman, Hammond, received honorable mention.

First place winner in the general art section was Levy Blanchard, Eunice, and Dwyer topped second place honors. Norman Redden, Plaquemine, took the third slot and Gonzales was named for honorable mention.

In the scrap craft area, Davis Roppolo, New Orleans, took first place honors. Dwyer was second, and Gene Chaisson, Lafayette, rated third.

Olan Coffey's classes in woodwork netted a first place award for a cedar chest for Nolita Dantin, Golden Meadow. Lloyd McMillan, West Monroe, took second place, also for a cedar chest. Leonard Bishop, New Orleans, and Ralph Perry, Madisonville, tied for third place with jewelry boxes. James Cowns, Westwego, ranked first in the lamp division, and McMillan was second.

In the metal works division, under the supervision of M. B. Lawrence, first place went to Jude Glavanna, Donaldsonville, who made a cannon, and second place went to Melvin Lopez, Jennings, for a metal hammer.

In the printing and photography section, no prizes were awarded since all the projects were group work, officials explained.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Jack Greene, first place for Indiana costumes went to Edward Vetroz, Lockport, with second place honors being topped by Truman Gandy, New Orleans. Third place winner was Harold Voret, Houma and Billy Brown, Winnfield, received honorable mention.

For rock pictures, Randy Pendavis, Transylvania, took first place. James Reed, Vidalia, was second, and Tommy Thompson, New Orleans, third. Reed also received honorable mention.

Also in Mrs. Green's classes, but without definite category, Johnny Delapasse, Plaquemine, received a first place award for bookends. Danny Pizzolata, Donaldsonville, took second place for a cement tree picture, and Paul Broussard, Prairieville, was third with a sand picture.

James Darton, Lake Providence, ranked first with a cement horse, and Don Ward, Baton Rouge, was second with gourd figurines. Reed took third with gourd painting, and Billy Wilkins, West Monroe, received honorable mention for his work with gourds.

Vidalia Baptists Plan Revival

VIDALIA (Special) — Revival services will be held at the Calvary Baptist Church in Vidalia daily at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. November 13-20. The visiting evangelist will be Rev. John W. Dugger.

Rev. Dugger served as a foreign missionary for many years and his messages should satisfy those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Complex Campaign Issues Aired

Voters in all 50 states will go to the polls tomorrow and vote for the Nixon-Lodge or the Kennedy-Johnson Ticket. Louisiana voters also have a U.S. senatorial race and 55 state constitutional amendments to decide upon.

The matter of an informed electorate has often been pointed to as necessary for government by the people. Certainly, due credit must be given to the Republican campaign managers for bringing the more complex issues of government to the peoples' attention.

In elections of the past, a party's position had to be condensed into slogans and promises. Two forces—rapid communications and pressing domestic and foreign problems—make political shorthand impractical now.

Both candidates came forward with views on defense outposts and foreign policy. Both agreed that communism was a threat to world freedom instead of so much "red hermitage" as former President Truman had said only a dozen years ago.

But candidates Kennedy and Nixon showed different attitudes in facing this threat. Early in the campaign, Senator Kennedy took an apologetic position for the U-2 airplane flights over Soviet Russia. Vice President Nixon followed the administration's reasoning that the relaxing of our Pacific patrols during a conference period in 1941 enabled the Japanese to strike a telling blow at Pearl Harbor.

He concluded there was no need to apologize for the U-2 plane which went down over Russia shortly before the Paris Summit Conference.

A tougher position was also taken by the Republican candidate on the offshore Chinese islands of Quemoy and Matsu. Kennedy took the position the islands called for no intervention by the United States if threatened. Nixon called it poor strategy to "write off" any of the free world's territory in advance.

Perhaps the most challenging presentation ever attempted during a political campaign was last week's televised discussion by Secretary of the Treasury Anderson on the nation's finances.

Regardless of how you look at it, this was not geared to appeal to the voter but a lecture in economics. While everyone is interested in the dollar, very few people want to understand why it seems to buy less and less.

The Anderson program was in effect a warning against the proposals of the Democratic platform which will demand more government spending.

But the efforts taken by those on the program to clarify such matters as the financing of a government project, debasement of currency, inflation, government bond issues and the depletion of U.S. gold reserves went far beyond political campaigning.

And all of these matters are as close to every voter as a nickel cup of coffee which now costs a dime.

Federal spending programs are the key issue in the 1960 presidential campaign. The Republicans have presented a good case for limited domestic spending in order to curb inflation while concentrating on defense spending to discourage communist aggression.

The Democratic platform, which caused any number of loyal members of that party to turn away this year, proposes to spend more at home and abroad. At no time in the campaign did any of the Kennedy team come up with the answer as to where the money was coming from.

As to party loyalty, James Byrnes, former governor of South Carolina and Secretary of State under Roosevelt and Truman turned his support to the Nixon ticket claiming the Democrats had written off the South when they wrote this year's platform.

Many will follow the example of this southern Democrat statesman at the polls tomorrow.

Reuther Aiming At Presidency

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

The best authority on Walter Reuther is Dr. J. B. Matthews, the original fellow-traveler of the communist movement, who became chief investigator for the House committee on un-American activities when Martin Dies was chairman. As such, Matthews made public the notorious Vic and Wal Letter, written by Walter Reuther and his brother Victor, from the factory town of Gorky in Soviet Russia, in 1934. The closing line was "carry on the fight for a Soviet America."

This is Doctor Matthews' version of all that. "At no time in the political history of this country has there been such a well-organized or heavily financed organization than that now operating for the sole purpose of placing Walter Reuther at the head of a socialist labor group for the openly avowed purpose of making him president within a decade."

This survey was written in December, 1949 so Matthews' timing was excellent, but nobody could anticipate then the peaks which interposed Jack Kennedy as Reuther's stooge in the 1960 campaign. That development came about through the creation of the Senate committee to investigate racketeers in the criminal "labor" movement which Roosevelt called into being in the 'thirties. Kennedy had always pretended to be offended by predatory and insurrectionary unions, but when he found himself on this committee, with his brother, Robert, as counsel, he suddenly embraced Reuther as a strong ally to promote his presidential ambitions.

It seems to be widely forgotten that Robert was counsel for the Democratic opposition in the Joe McCarthy investigations of communism in the government.

The Democrats were caught in a bad jam in that scandalous situation for their administration had fostered espionage and treason for years. So the Democrats made the best of it by refusing to write any report at all. This background shows the ruthlessness of both Kennedys and their indifference to the socialist force in Reuther's political movement within the Auto Workers' union.

In the two great insurrections which temporarily unseated full government in Detroit, Flint and other Michigan automobile centers, Walter and Victor Reuther were all over the scene in Hitlerian "command" cars and wearing Hitlerian uniform caps with military belts and officers' insignia. Jack Kennedy's ominous references to the President's aggregate emergency powers invite visions of similar patrols by Reuther's men in the next few years.

"On Dec. 16, 1949," Matthews continued, "1,500 'liberals' and 'labor leaders' gathered at a banquet in the Astor to watch Eleanor Roosevelt present a silver plaque to Walter and hear testimonial outbursts from Senators Lehman, Chester Bowles, then governor of Connecticut, and others. Bowles described Reuther as 'the spearhead of the American dream.'"

Bowles is now at Kennedy's side. If Adlai Stevenson is not Kennedy's preference for Secretary of State, then Bowles probably will be.

"At the Astor dinner," Matthews continued, "Reuther announced that the choice is not between Wall Street and the Kremlin, Stalin or Standard Oil. He meant that he, Reuther, was the choice. He and his crowd have a time-table for the attainment of this goal. If it is reached it will be difficult to write freely of his violent career as a labor mountebank. He was the driving force in the sit down strikes of 1936, the greatest single insurrectionary defiance of government except the Civil War."

Born in Wheeling, W. Va., of a German socialist father, Walter went to Detroit to work in the Briggs Plant and victory and Roy joined him in 1930. They all enrolled at Wayne College and fought and defeated a proposal to form a ROTC unit. None of them went to World War II. Early in 1933 Walter and Victor sailed for Europe. They have claimed that they cycled all over Europe, but two American women who had known them in Detroit said they borrowed the bikes and did a little cycling in the environs of Paris that summer.

Early in 1934, Walter and Victor were in Gorky, USSR, and on Feb. 20, 1934, Matthews encountered Roy Reuther, who in Flint complained that Wal and Vic had "gone completely socialist."

Matthews said Melvin and Gladys Bishop got a rapacious letter from Wal and Vic and that Roy copied it to show it to friends, including Matthews.

Matthews entered the letter in the record of the Dies committee's hearings and this text does close with the exhortation: "Carry on the fight for a Soviet America!" The text has been printed hundreds of times, but the public memory is not retentive and recently voters who could not believe that Kennedy would embrace the author of this ugly remark have been groping for the truth which was set forth with scrupulous fidelity in the committee record including also the phrase:

"The daily inspiration as we work with our Russian comrades in our factory; the thought that what we are building will be for the benefit of the working class of the entire world, is compensation for our temporary absence from the struggle in the United States."

Dark Continent In Convulsion

JIM BISHOP

Africa is in convulsion. Out of the dark continent, new nations emerge and, almost at once, are torn by bloodshed. The Negroes kill the whites, and kill each other. Governments rise, stand poised for a moment on the rim of history, and die in treachery.

An American Negro named Louis E. Lomax went there to get the story — not the pro-Negro story, not the pro-white story, just the story.

He has written a book called "The Reluctant African." It will be published next week by Harper. The author's findings are, at the least, shocking. There may be brotherhood somewhere in the world, but he didn't find it in the Dark Continent.

Permit me to quote Lomax interviewed Joshua Nkomo, of Southern Rhodesia, while both were in London. The author asked: "Is the white man welcome to stay in Africa, Southern Rhodesia particularly?" Nkomo answered: "Why not? The white man can stay in Africa if he behaves himself." It sounds familiar, but in reverse.

The Africans are romanced by the Russians and the Chinese and the Egyptians. One young man was invited to go to Peking on a student rally. His expenses would be paid, and he could get $3,000 for "personal expenses."

Lomax asked why the student needed that much. "Well," he said, "One can't go to Peking naked even though everybody in Peking is naked, can one?"

One of the oldest of the independent African states is Ethiopia. It was overcome, momentarily, by the Italians in 1936, but regained its freedom in the war. The country is populated by Negroes, but is anti-Negro throughout.

The author was at a party, in Addis Ababa, when Dr. Ato Adjei, foreign minister of Ghana, approached him. Adjei knew that Lomax was an American. The attack started at once. "You American newsmen," he said, "black and white both, are all alike. You are always ready to accuse us of failing to practice democracy in Africa when you don't practice it yourselves. Democracy will not work for you and it will not work for us. You know it will not work as you use it to try and sow discord in our African governments. If you people are so interested in Africa, then why don't you help us? Your Mr. Dulles would not loan us the money for the Aswan Dam, but we got it. You wouldn't loan us the money for the Volta River Dam, but we got that too. You see," Dr. Adjei laughed, "we don't need you Americans any more."

Louis Lomax made a mistake. He tried to defend his country. The people at the diplomatic party at once converged on him and, one at a time, threw in his teeth the U-2 incident, the race question, the Summit explosion, the mobs in Japan, the Korean crisis. The harder Lomax defended, the harder the Negroes hit by Negroes.

"Another apologist for the white capitalists and colonialists," one said. "But the world knows what America is. Her record is scorching on the soul of every non-white man on the face of the earth."

Adjei showed Lomax what real freedom is. He invited the American to Ghana as his guest. "Only one thing," he said, "If you write anything we don't like, we will put you in jail."

This small part of the book retails what happened in an adult country like Ethiopia. Lomax found Ethiopia a weak argument for independence.

"Its streets are unpaved," he writes, "its buildings shabby and crumbling. Even the Ethiopians admit that what few modern conveniences they have were instituted during the period of the Italian occupation. Individual rights and freedoms as we know them are almost non-existent."

"Heretofore, they had not considered themselves Africans, or members of the black brotherhood. When I was a Washington D. C. newspaperman in the early forties, I was barred from a press conference at the Ethiopian Embassy because I was a Negro."

"For years the Ethiopian economy has been bolstered up by American aid. The country has been peppered by American missionaries. Yet American Embassy and Point Four people are bitterly disliked; some of them have been openly assaulted on the streets."

It's a disturbing book. It throws a beam of light on big dark space in the world. If they hate us so much, why must you and I pay extra taxes to feed them?

Aren't You Turned Around A Little Bit, Jack?

Poll Of Editors Reveals Forecasts, Leanings

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — This correspondent has just completed a poll of the editors of the daily newspapers of the country, asking their confidential judgment on the outcome of the presidential election in their own states. It was conducted by mail in the last 10 days with the understanding that no names of individuals or newspapers would be published. The assurance was given that the answers would be used only for a statistical compilation.

The number of replies was higher than in any similar poll conducted by this writer in previous presidential elections. A total of 1,580 letters were sent, and 1,313 replies have been received thus far, or 83.1 per cent. From several states the return was 95 to 100 per cent. Polling experts agree that any such response to a mail survey is exceptionally high.

The editors were asked to mark a simple questionnaire to show whether their state is "certain" for or "leaning" toward Nixon or Kennedy. It is significant that many editors themselves were uncertain about the outcome in their state. Some pencilled their reasons for not knowing, namely, the "religious" issue, which seems to have become the biggest question mark connected with the campaign. In California, for example, only one editor is "certain" that Kennedy will win that state and only one is "certain" that Nixon will win it. Of the others, 48 say that the state is "leaning" toward Kennedy, and 27 that it is "leaning" toward Nixon, while 7 call it a "toss-up."

It's the same story of doubt by the editors in Illinois, where none is "certain" that Kennedy will take the state and only 4 are "certain" that Nixon will win it. Of the remaining 51, there are 20 who see it as "leaning" toward Kennedy and 30 as "leaning" toward Nixon, with 1 "toss-up."

If the "certain" and "leaning" for each candidate are grouped together, with somewhat more weight given to the answers marked "certain," not only are a few states so close as to be virtually "tossups," but the electoral college that results is itself close. It adds up to 290 for Kennedy and 247 for Nixon, with 269 electoral votes needed to win.

If, on the other hand, the editors' judgment in only one big state is wrong—that is, if Nixon's home state of California goes for him—the result would be turned around to a Nixon victory with 279 votes, against 258 for Kennedy.

The reason why a forecast based on either tabulation can be wrong is that many of the editors in the rural part of a state may not be familiar with the voting situation in the big cities, while editors in the big cities cannot always appraise accurately what the vote is likely to be in the rural areas, particularly this year on the so-called "religious" issue.

But here is the way the actual table comes out after noting in the first four columns all the answers received up to the time of writing, and then allocating the electoral vote on the basis of the majority of the judgments in each state:

Republican Candidates For Congress Face Battle

By FULTON LEWIS

WASHINGTON—The names Don Bruce, James H. Mantis, W. Clyde Wright and Ralph Radwan mean little to casual observers of the national political scene. But to the field generals at the Republican Congressional Committee they have great significance.

They are Republican congressional candidates in urban areas, fighting uphill battles against liberal Democratic incumbents. If they and others like them from New York to Los Angeles can win, the Republican party has a future in an increasingly industrialized America. If they lose, it will be a disastrous omen for the GOP.

While it is generally expected that the Republicans will make a comeback of sorts in the House of Representatives, special attention will be riveted on the above candidates and their races. They represent a new breed of GOP candidate, young, aggressive, personable politicians able to articulate their position.

They represent also the kind of candidate Vice President Nixon demanded after the 1958 elections—the very antithesis of the aging, bulging, stereotyped standard bearer. Candidate Bruce is a good example. Tackling liberal Democratic Rep. Joe Barr in Indiana's 11th district, Bruce is young (39), accomplished in business and civic affairs and aggressively conservative.

In a solidly urban area (Indianapolis) Bruce is challenging Barr on issues. He has appealed to the voters as a traditional conservative. Barr, who thought he could win in a walk earlier in the campaign, is running scared.

Bruce points to Barr's 90 per cent AFL-CIO voting record, his opposition to the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill, his support of federal aid in virtually every form (sewers, depressed areas, irrigation, housing, etc.). Bruce is landing telling points when he explains that for every dollar Indianapolis sends to Washington for Federal aid, it gets back only 55 cents.

James H. Mantis is a 41-year-old Reading, Pennsylvania restaurateur and candidate for the state's 14th district seat now held by leftwing Congressman George Rhodes. Mantis, whose campaign button is a small gold praying mantis, has a Rhodes running scared.

Rhodes has voted the AFL-CIO line 40 times in his political ca-

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

ADHESIONS AFTER SURGERY. We were pleased when Mary recovered from an abdominal operation and returned to work as fit as ever. During the next few months she gained in strength and vigor.

Suddenly, one Sunday morning, she awakened with nausea and severe intestinal cramping. At the hospital, X-rays showed evidence of bowel obstruction and operation was in order. The surgeon found the small intestine pinched off by a band of adhesions. The involved area was like an inflated balloon squeezed in the middle by a rubber band.

Adhesions are bands of scar tissue that form whenever the smooth and delicate lining of the abdominal wall and organs is irritated, infected, bruised, rubbed, or cut. These cobweb-like bands that form between loops of bowel are harmless unless they become tight enough to pinch off the intestine.

In this respect, adhesions no longer are blamed for every twinge of pain or indefinite symptoms that follows surgery. They are serious only when they lead to obstruction of the colon.

The chances of developing adhesions are minimized when the surgeon handles the tissues with the utmost delicacy and follows good surgical principles to the letter. He must even remove the powder from his rubber gloves because it could prove irritating if it gets into the abdomen.

But adhesions develop in some, regardless of surgical skill. How can new adhesions be prevented when surgery is needed to correct a bowel obstruction from old adhesions? This complication can be discouraged by cutting the bands with a cautery and using a drug such as hyaluronidase or prostigmine.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

HEART FLIPFLOPS

F. K. writes: Every evening on going to bed I have 20 to 30 minute bout of extra-systoles. My doctor says I need not be concerned but I'm wondering if this is a form of heart disease.

REPLY

These extra beats occur in the normal heart as well as the abnormal. They are most noticeable when the heart slows down. Too much coffee, tea, or tobacco may play a role. But your heart is normal if irregularity is the only finding.

HAIR LOSS AT 80

Mrs. H. R. writes: I have beautiful long hair that is falling out and I don't know what to do. Do you think it is due to my age—80 years?

REPLY

The hair thinning with age but there are other reasons worth investigating—low metabolism and anemia, for example.

RUBBING WITH LINIMENT

J. W. writes: Does any kind of liniment penetrate the skin sufficiently to reduce stiffness after a fracture has healed?

REPLY

No, but liniment makes the skin feel warm and massage increases local circulation. In this respect it helps.

TB OF SPINE

B. J. writes: What is done for Pott's disease?

REPLY

Tuberculosis of the spine is treated with the usual antituberculous drugs (PAS, streptomycin, and isoniazid). Surgery and braces may be needed to keep the vertebrae from collapsing and producing a serious deformity of the back.

ITCHING LIDS

J. J. E. writes: My eyelids are always itchy. What can be done for relief?

REPLY

Infection and allergy are the commonest causes. Consult an ophthalmologist and be cured. Today's Health Hint—Most of the changes you fear never will happen to you.

Farm Youngsters Have Important Role In Agriculture

Four - H Club work has become a vital force in the lives of many persons in the agricultural areas of Ouachita and other parishes around the state.

In Ouachita there are 1,848 youngsters enrolled in club membership and carrying on a variety of projects ranging from livestock through crops, food preparation, home management and many others.

The age range of members can fall within the bracket of 10 years to 21, but few stay in until the maximum age limit, because they move on to the more advanced phases of activities in the agricultural community, or shift to other lines of endeavor such as college or employment.

Key officials in the parish's 4-H organization are Elliott Branch, assistant county agent, and Mrs. Donna M. Moore, assistant home demonstration agent. In addition to these are many adult leaders who lend their time and efforts to promoting the activities of the youngsters.

MORE IMPORTANT

Club officials feel that they are dealing in something vastly more important than just the promotion of various agricultural projects. Their goal is the training of the youngsters.

Assistant agent Branch summed up the goal of the work this way: "We talk quite often about projects in 4-H, but the purpose is not the project itself, but the child is our prime consideration. We use the project as a means for training the child."

"For one thing it develops responsibility and personal worth in that they have something which they own themselves. And also they learn the ups and downs of life itself through the projects. And by that I mean that an animal may get sick and it may die. Or they have to work their heads off with an animal and go to a livestock show and lose. It is winning and losing."

"Along this line it helps the child find itself in its own family as well as in society. Club members learn something about business through banking and financing of these projects."

"A few receive junior livestock loans that are underwritten to a per cent by the State Department of Agriculture with the loan coming from a local bank. Other projects are financed through regular loan agencies. Some youngsters have their own checkbooks and handle their own accounts to pay back money under supervision of their parents."

POINT

An example of the latter point was made close to home by Assistant Agent Branch.

His son, Steven, 11, borrowed $50 for a lamb project. He will have his own checking account and handle repayment loans as he sells the animals.

He purchased three Hampshire wether lambs about eight months old. And they will be fattened for market and sold at the age of around one year. Steven is a member of Drew School 4-H Club and will follow instructions from the 4-H Club bulletin on lamb projects telling how to feed and fatten animals to make them marketable.

In this project, as he does in others, Branch will inspect animals periodically, making recommendations for improvements in care and handling.

The prevailing livestock projects in the Ouachita area are dairy, beef, swine and lamb. A number of 4-H'ers also have chicken projects.

There are two phases of livestock work, the market group and the breeding class. A market animal is one sold for meat purposes only. In this class may fall beef, lamb and swine, but generally not dairy animals which are raised primarily for milk to supplement the family income.

In the other class, breeding, are the animals being raised for purposes of using in breeding and improving a herd.

STRESS

"We stress purebred stock," said Branch, "in that it will represent even our adult phases of our livestock program."

Of the 1,848 youngsters engaged in 4-H work in the parish, 1,039 are girls, and 809 boys. Boys and girls who will be 10 by January 1, will be eligible to start in 4-H work during the current school year.

There are 42 projects included in the club program, and monthly meetings are held at the various schools where clubs are headquartered. The two assistant agents conduct 24 meetings a month.

It takes Branch and Mrs. Moore generally the first three weeks of each month to get around to all of the clubs. Sometimes they make as many as four school calls in one day.

At each school meeting Branch conducts a demonstration on some project for the boys, while Mrs. Moore meets with the girls and demonstrates some phase of project work for them.

Annually there is an achievement day in which all clubs are represented. Here club members display achievements and talents developed through club projects. A few of the senior club winners are selected to go to a summer short course at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge. The course runs for a week.

Club members compete for honors with projects at parish and state fairs, and district and state livestock shows, and in a number of special contests held during the year.

POULTRY

A number of members have poultry projects and exhibit birds at the annual parish Chicken of Tomorrow show. In past years a state Chicken of Tomorrow show has been held, but it is being discontinued for a time, at least, because of the death of the person who led its destinies for so long.

The death of Clyde Ingram in Monroe recently brought about this decision. He was a veteran poultry specialist with the Louisiana State Agricultural Extension Service, and much sought after for advice by agricultural and commercial interests.

Usually some of the chickens were sold following the shows, and most of the remainder were placed in the deep freeze for family use, providing a boost to the food budget of many farm families.

"The dairy calf is about as popular as any project in the parish," said Branch. "There are more lambs in projects, but a member will have three to six lambs, while in dairy calves a member will have generally one or two."

When a dairy animal is kept as a project, the milk usually is for home use. However, beef, lamb and swine generally are sold in the junior auctions at various shows such as the district event at Delhi, and state shows at Shreveport and Baton Rouge.

GRAIN

Club members raise some grain on the farm for livestock. Corn is the most commonly raised grain. Pastures also are maintained for animals.

Quite a few youngsters carry on crop work such as sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, and garden vegetables which go primarily for family use.

Forestry work has come in for a generous amount of attention from the club members. Last winter, said Branch, some 8,000 pine seedlings were planted. Planting rate for seedlings is 1,000 an acre. An acre is required for project to be accredited.

Where seedlings are planted on an area minus other larger trees, the project is a long range one, looking forward to pulpwood harvest, posts, and later sawlogs. However, youngsters are encouraged to reseed barren spots in pine stands.

Said Branch, "Actually where reseeded is done in existing stands it is better than going out into an old field where there is nothing. It is better for the 4-H record and also to get a project where some of the trees are already advanced so you can get some income out of it soon."

WILDLIFE

Wildlife work claims a lot of interest in 4-H groups. In this category are two projects, a study of Louisiana trees, and a study of birds.

"This is the learning of the names, common and scientific, of Louisiana trees, and the same applies to the birds."

Each project member is given a manual on trees giving their names, giving pictures of them as well as showing details of their leaves and fruit to help in identification. There also is a manual on birds.

There are 544 enrolled in the two wildlife projects.

Although a number of girls have livestock projects, few boys have projects that usually are considered for girls. There are from three to five boys in such projects as baking, child care and food preparation.

Among the projects that are especially for the girls are those under two general headings, food preparation which includes baking and food preparation, and food preservation under which falls canning and frozen foods.

Other projects for girls are home improvement in which they work over their own rooms, rearranging furniture, drapes and working out color schemes. Another is home management which includes time and money management. This is the providing of facilities which would save time.

A long standing project for boys and girls who have reached their 14th birthday is that of junior leadership. In this they are groomed to teach younger club members and help them in their project work.

In a recent announcement, C. S. Shirley, state club agent for 4-H work, who is affiliated with the LSU Agricultural Extension Service, Baton Rouge, said, "The 4-H Club idea now circles the globe. More than 40 countries, in widely separated areas of the world, have adopted all or part of the plan and adapted to their own needs and conditions."

He continued, "Wherever they are, 4-H Club members strive individually and with each other for better citizenship, better living, better family cooperation, or better world understanding. Four-H members are proud of their organization and glad they are 4-H members. Remember the 4-H motto, 'Make the Best Better.'"

VIEWING AGRICULTURE

Time Is Nearing For Tree Work

By J. J. JOYCE JR.

Ouachita Parish County Agent

Recently we have had a number of calls on the time to prune fruit trees. We like to wait to prune fruit trees until it is well in its dormant stage. That is, in this parish the latter part of November, December, January, and February.

The early part of February is the best time to do this pruning. we only prune fruit trees mainly to train the trees. If they are properly pruned and trained it makes the limbs less apt to break under heavy loads of fruit.

Training and spacing the limbs also makes it more convenient and economical to spray, thin, and harvest the fruit.

With few exceptions pruning usually results in a smaller tree and a lower total yield of fruit because the smaller size of the tree is caused by the removal of the wood and by the smaller amount of leaf surface present to manufacture food for future growth.

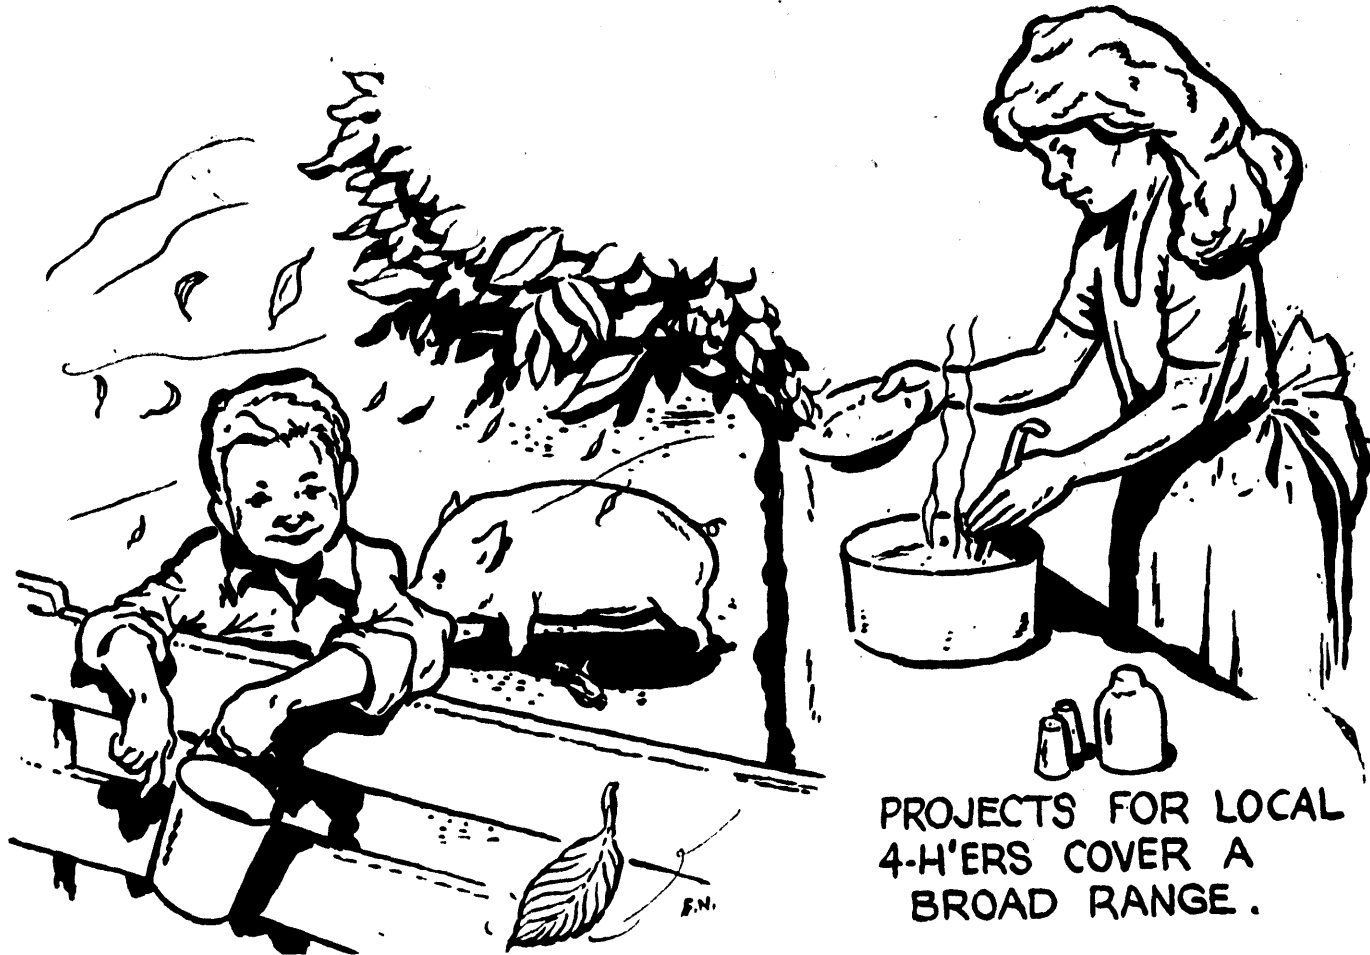

We like to prune our trees so that all the harvesting can be done from the ground rather than from ladders. The tree usually lives longer because the limbs grow in more vigorous and better conditions and the spraying and thinning is done much cheaper.

If you are just planting a young orchard for the first time, the pruning should consist of cutting limbs back to about one-inch stubs or the terminal bud. This is done so that you can build a bunch of scaffold branches that can be selected for shaping the tree to a much prettier shape than by using the original limbs.

Some people have asked what types of vegetables that they can plant now. Vegetables that can withstand cold include beets, mustard, turnips, carrots, shallots, kale, spinach, lettuce, radishes, collards, and garlic.

SAFETY

The weather is turning cold and it is the beginning of our winter months. The fire departments are kept busy having to answer a lot of calls. In the country, homes are burned down because of faulty flues, chimneys the most economical fences that can be built — it is cheaply operated. Be sure that you have a good electric fence that is safe and is properly built with an approved electric fence controller.

I have seen blueprints and drawings of electric fences that can be built at home. These fences can be very dangerous because small children not realizing what they are getting into can come in contact with an electric fence and if it is not built right and with approved controller could cause death to the small child.

If you have an electric fence that has the underwriter approval then you have a safe fence to use.

You know an electric fence that is built properly has a high voltage and a very low current. It is built so that the voltage is released every few seconds and since it is built that way the shock is intermittent and lasts only a moment and a person or animal is released without any danger.

Gable Rests After Heart Seizure

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Clark Gable—struck by a heart attack that might have been much worse if he hadn't called off a hunting trip—was resting satisfactorily today.

Gable suffered the attack Sunday at his suburban Encino home and was rushed by ambulance to Hollywood Presbyterian hospital. Doctors and his wife said the quick use of oxygen undoubtedly prevented more serious, or even fatal, damage to his heart.

"It's a miracle," said Kay Gable, expectant mother and fifth wife of the 59-year-old king of the movies. "He had planned a week-end hunting trip at his duck club near Stockton. There are no phones there and it's miles from a doctor."

"Then Friday night he said: 'I think I'll spend the weekend home with you and the children. I don't think I should go up there.'"

"On Saturday night he seemed fine, wrestling with my two children all over the living room floor."

"Later he said he felt a little sick and went to bed at 9 p.m. About 4 a.m., he awakened and complained of chest pains. He was perspiring and he felt clammy. I gave him two aspirins."

"At 8:15 a.m., he got up and tried to dress but the pains in his chest were too much. He just sat there helpless. I called the doctor immediately."

The doctor took one look and called a fire department rescue squad and an ambulance.

Gable had no history of heart trouble. His wife said he hadn't even had a cold in years.

Friday he wound up a movie with Marilyn Monroe—"The Misfits."

I talked with him that day and all he could talk about was his coming fatherhood next March. He will be 60 then, and a father for the first time.

"This is a dividend that has come to me late in life," he said. "I'm taking off until the baby is born. I want to be there and I want to be there a good many months afterward."

Mrs. Gable, who married the film king five years ago after divorcing sugar heir Adolph Spreckels Jr., slept on a couch at the foot of Gable's hospital bed.

NOVEMBER 8 VOTE

General Election Polls Are Listed

Polling places in Ouachita Parish for the Nov. 8 general election have been announced.

Ouachita residents will vote on president, U. S. senator and 55 amendments to the Louisiana constitution.

There are 51 precincts in the Parish's 10 wards.

But, as the picture series above indicates, you had better go to the polls prepared if you wish to vote the complete ballot—amendments and all.

A Morning World reporter voted this week with no prior preparation for voting and it required 10 minutes to complete the entire process.

With a marked ballot on the 53 amendments to go by it still took her a little over three minutes the limit allowed for voting.

Extensive coverage is planned by the Morning World in the crucial election, especially for Louisiana with the State Legislature in session on the integration issue.

The precincts by ward, number and location are:

Ward 1, Pct. 1, Clubhouse Fairbanks; Pct. 2, Stall's Pharmacy - Sterling.

Ward 2, Pct. 2, Swartz School, Swartz.

Hearst Paper Bought Out In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit News today bought the Detroit Times.

The Times, a Hearst newspaper operation, ceased publication. The independently owned News said in a statement it had bought the Times plant, printing equipment and other physical assets. The News, owned by the Evening News Association, also said it acquired distribution rights to features and supplements used by the Times.

Hearst executives expressed "regret at leaving Detroit" after nearly 40 years of (Hearst) publication.

"However," a statement said, "The Times has been beset by the same basic problems confronting so many other metropolitan newspapers. Publishing costs, including labor, newsprint, equipment and supplies of every nature have risen far more rapidly than have revenues."

Warren S. Booth, publisher of the Detroit News, said: "No one in the newspaper business likes to see a newspaper die. But in recent years production costs have risen astronomically, with the unfortunate result that in a number of American cities a newspaper has been forced to close down."

The News appears with today's editions with a combined Detroit News-Detroit Times logotype on page one. The News said the paper would be expanded to handle regular Times features. All Times subscribers will receive the News.

Police Close 4 Gulfport Stores

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP) — Police Sunday closed four groceries and a self-service laundry on charges of violating state blue laws by operating on Sunday.

Four of the operators were released on bonds and the fifth was paroled to Mayor R. B. Meadows Jr. Hearings will be held Thursday before Municipal Judge J. U. Simmons.

The arrests were made on affidavits signed by two Baptist ministers and a layman. Three church groups and a civic club recently protested the opening of grocery stores on Sunday.

Minnesota Sniffs Roses, No. 1 Rating In Iowa Upset

Arkansas, Ole Miss Enhance Bowl Chances

By MARTIN LADER
United Press International

Minnesota's Gophers, all but disowned on their own campus last year, today appear headed for the nation's most lucrative post-season game — the Rose Bowl — following their 27-10 upset victory over top-ranked Iowa last Saturday.

Washington, winner of the Pasadena classic last New Year's Day and 34-0 victor over Southern California Saturday, is the top choice to fill the spot against Minnesota while Missouri, Mississippi and Arkansas also furthered their prospects of bowl assignments with weekend victories.

With two weeks of the season to go, here's how the picture for major bowl games shapes up:

Rose — Washington (7-1) vs. Minnesota (7-0).

Sugar — Mississippi (7-0-1) vs. Baylor (5-2) or Rice (5-2).

Orange — Missouri (6-0) vs. Duke (6-1).

Cotton — Arkansas (6-3) vs. Alabama (5-1-1), or Navy (7-1).

What proved to be a glory-packed Saturday for some schools however, resulted in a day of misery for other major powers as half the nation's top 10 teams went down to defeat.

DUKE DROPS NAVY
Joining kingpin Iowa on the deficit ledger were third-ranked Navy (19-10 to Duke), eighth-ranked Tennessee (14-7 to Georgia Tech), ninth-ranked Syracuse (9-6 to Army) and 10th-ranked Rice (3-0 to Arkansas).

Fourth-ranked Missouri defeated Colorado 14-6, fifth-ranked Ohio State ripped Indiana, 36-7, and sixth-ranked Mississippi trounced Chattanooga, 45-0.

Minnesota, which had a 2-7 record last year and finished at the bottom of the Big 10, completed its spectacular rise before a record home crowd of 65,610. The second-ranked Gophers took advantage of three Iowa fumbles to score their seventh straight victory without a loss.

Seventh-ranked Washington also capitalized on fumbles to tighten its Rose Bowl chances. George Fleming was the scoring star for the Huskies, running 65 yards for a first-period touchdown, kicking field goals of 25 and 36 yards and also converting four extra points.

Mississippi, which defeated Louisiana State, 21-0, in the Sugar Bowl last New Year's Day, strengthened its chance to defend its title by routing Chattanooga, 45-0.

Baylor lost to Texas, 12-7, last Saturday while Rice lost by a field goal to Arkansas, but will be in line for the Sugar Bowl bids if they finish high in the Southwest Conference.

Missouri, undefeated in eight games, and Duke, with one loss in seven contests, both came through tough tests Saturday. The Tigers, sparked by a 55-yard touchdown run by halfback Norm Beal, had to come from behind to down Colorado while Duke also had to overcome a deficit to defeat previously-unbeaten Navy.

The Middles are keeping silent about any post-season games for a while, but they are a possibility for the Cotton Bowl or another bowl. Arkansas kicked itself into first place in the Southwest Conference, the champion of which will host the Cotton Bowl, on a 26-yard field goal by Mickey Cissell with 25 seconds remaining in the game.

'Bounce' Play Not Part Of Auburn Plan

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Auburn's Bryant Harward pulled "a play we didn't know we had" as the Tigers defeated Mississippi State 27-12 Saturday, coach Ralph (Shug) Jordan says.

Lightheartedly discussing the Early second quarter incident when Harward recovered his own fumble and scooted 54 yards, Jordan described the play as "where the quarterback takes the ball from center, bounces it like a basketball one time and then runs 50 yards."

The coach said he was "tremendously pleased" with the "Tigers' overall performance, though he found their play "spotty," particularly in tackling and blocking.

And, the coach added, he was "extremely worried" at halftime when his team was ahead 6 to 0 by virtue of two field goals, but had played "listlessly" the previous few minutes. However, the Tigers recovered their spirit and Jordan said the third quarter saw their best performance of the game.

Speaking as moderator of a television showing of the game, Jordan credited Mississippi State with a "mighty fine team." He said State's Mackie Weaver is "one of the finest fullbacks we've played against all year."

Doug Atkins of the Chicago Bears is the National Football League's largest defensive end. He stands 6-foot, 8-inches tall and weighs 255 pounds.

and sent Razorbacks into Southwest Conference lead. George McKinney (11) was holding for the kick. (AP Wire-photo)

Byrd, Jesuit Tie For First In UPI Triple-A Rankings

By EUGENE V. KNISPEN
United Press International

Byrd comes up again this week to tie the mighty Jesuit in the No. 1 spot of state Class AAA football standings even though its 27-6 defeat of Ouachita over the weekend stood in the shadow of Jesuit's 40-0 rout of St. Stanislaus of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Oddly enough, United Press International's board of coaches last week put Byrd second to the Blue Jays of New Orleans after the Jays had been idle and the Shreveport team beat Springhill, 41-14.

The rest of the UPI top 10 also remains pretty much the same, with Baton Rouge at third, LaGrange at fourth, DeLaSalle at fifth and Sulphur at sixth.

The Capital City crew dumped Terrebonne, 26-8, knocking the losers out of a tie for the bottom rung of the elite ladder. LaGrange barely got by stubborn Sulphur, 13-10, and DeLaSalle rested.

Seventh-place St. Aloysius trades places with Bolton, which was No. 8. Bolton rode New Iberia down, 47-7, while St. Aloysius squeaked a 14-13 win over cross-town rival Holy Cross.

Istrouma inches up out of the 10th-place tie to a solo No. 9 position, having gotten past unpredictable Bogalusa 20-18. Warren Easton, 32-0 winner over West Jefferson, revisits the mythical cream of the crop at the bottom of the list.

DeLaSalle seriously endangers its No. 5 position and a perfect 9-0 record this week by going against Jesuit for the only game inside the top 10. Sulphur could get real trouble from Lafayette. And Warren Easton has a fight on its hands in an intra-city match against Fortier.

Following are the class AAA teams rated tops in the state this week by the United Press International coaches' rating board. Ten points have been given for each first-place vote, nine for second-place votes, etc. First place votes, if any, and team records are in parenthesis.

Teams	Total Points
1. Jesuit (3) (6-1)	46
2. Byrd (2) (9-0)	46
3. Baton Rouge (7-0)	40
4. LaGrange (6-1)	35
5. DeLaSalle (9-0)	33
6. Sulphur (5-2-1)	21
7. Bolton (6-2-1)	19
8. St. Aloysius (8-1)	15
9. Istrouma (5-3)	11
10. Warren Easton (4-3)	3

Other teams mentioned in the voting plus the number of points they received: Fair Park 2, Lafayette 2, West Monroe 2.

3. Minnesota, beat Iowa 27-10
4. Navy, lost to Duke 19-10
5. Ohio State, beat Indiana 36-7
6. Mississippi, beat Chattanooga 45-0
7. Washington, beat USC 34-0
8. Tennessee, lost to Georgia Tech 14-7
9. Syracuse, lost to Army 54-0
10. Rice, lost to Arkansas 3-0

Kilmer Gives Full A-To-Z Performance

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—In a football sense UCLA's Bill Kilmer lives up to the motto of his Azusa, Calif., hometown — "Everything from A to Z in the USA."

He can run, pass, punt and fake in a manner which brings him plenty of West Coast support for All America honors this campaign.

Take, for instance, his performance Saturday against California as the Bruins triumphed 28-0 in their Big Five battle.

The 186-pound senior passed and ran for 225 yards, set up all four touchdowns and scored two of them. One of his punts, a quick kick, traveled 73 yards from scrimmage, and he averaged 51 yards booting on the afternoon.

After the long quick kick, he utilized the respect being shown his foot to complete a couple of long gain passes out of a fake kick maneuver just to further befuddle the Bears.

"Kilmer is a great back," says Bruin Coach Bill Barnes of the fellow many call the best tailback in UCLA history. "He has lots of command and can move the team. And he's a fine runner."

Bill figured the afternoon against California was his best for rushing since he gained 109 yards on 16 carries for a 6.83 average. Passing, he hit 8 of 11 attempts for 116 yards.

Against Purdue as the two clubs tied 27-27, Kilmer completed 9 of 16 passes for 226 yards but gained only 42 yards rushing in 13 carries. That 226 total was his largest for an afternoon this fall. But against California he didn't see action at all in the fourth quarter as Barnes reached well down into his reserve list.

Korean Booters Win

SEOUL (UPI)—The Republic of Korea defeated Japan, 2-1, Sunday in the first of a two-game elimination series for the seventh world soccer championship in 1962. It was the first sports event held here between Korea and Japan since the end of World War II.

Florida Ranked No. 1 Prospect For Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The Gator Bowl selection committee has made Florida its No. 1 choice for the Dec. 31 football game here.

Florida was impressive in beating Georgia 22-14 here Saturday and now has a season record of 6-2. The Gators still must play Tulane and Miami.

The bowl committee also favors Pittsburgh or Texas as the other team—depending on how they fare in the rest of their games.

Other teams mentioned as possibilities include Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi, Georgia Tech, Rice, Arkansas, Navy, Duke, North Carolina State and Oregon.

Oil paintings of 16 members of the National Jockeys Hall of Fame will be on display in the Pimlico clubhouse during the autumn racing season, Nov. 14-Dec. 15.

Court Will Rule On A's Stock Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—Judge Robert J. Dunne is expected to decide today whether probate court has the jurisdiction to resolve a dispute over the possible sale of the Kansas City Athletics' baseball club.

Involved in the battle are the co-executors of the will of the late Arnold Johnson of Chicago who owned 52 per cent of the club's stock.

The City National Bank of Chicago and Mrs. Warren M. Humes of New York, the remarried widow of Johnson, are the co-executors. The bank has received offers of approximately $3.5 million from interested groups in Kansas City and St. Louis and has asked that the court direct the sale of the stock.

Mrs. Humes does not want to sell. She thinks the stock is a good investment and wants her 10-year-old son, Jeffrey Johnson, to own the ball club someday.

Mrs. Humes' attorney, Harold L. Herzstein, Friday questioned whether the court can rule on sale of the stock when the co-executors cannot agree. He also said the court must view the stock as Mrs. Humes' property.

Attorney John Angelo, representing the bank, reaffirmed the bank's stand that Mrs. Humes is not the owner of the stock but only a co-executor.

NOVEMBER 8 VOTE

General Election Polls Are Listed

Polling places in Ouachita Parish for the Nov. 8 general election have been announced.

Ouachita residents will vote on president, U. S. senator and 53 amendments to the Louisiana constitution.

There are 51 precincts in the Parish's 10 wards.

But, as the picture series above indicates, you had better go to the polls prepared if you wish to vote the complete ballot—amendments and all.

A Morning World reporter voted this week with no prior preparation for voting and it required 10 minutes to complete the entire process.

With a marked ballot on the 53 amendments to go by it still took her a little over three minutes, the limit allowed for voting. Extensive coverage is planned by the Morning World in the crucial election, especially for Louisiana with the State Legislature in session on the integration issue.

The precincts by ward, number and location are:

Hearst Paper Bought Out In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit News today bought the Detroit Times.

The Times, a Hearst newspaper operation, ceased publication. The independently owned News said in a statement it had bought the Times plant, printing equipment and other physical assets. The News, owned by the Evening News Association, also said it acquired distribution rights to features and supplements used by the Times.

Hearst executives expressed "regret at leaving Detroit" after nearly 40 years of (Hearst) publication.

"However," a statement said, "The Times has been beset by the same basic problems confronting so many other metropolitan newspapers. Publishing costs, including labor, newsprint, equipment and supplies of every nature have risen far more rapidly than have revenues."

Warren S. Booth, publisher of the Detroit News, said: "No one in the newspaper business likes to see a newspaper die. But in recent years production costs have risen astronomically, with the unfortunate result that in a number of American cities a newspaper has been forced to close down."

The News appears with today's editions with a combined Detroit news-Detroit Times logotype on page one. The News said the paper would be expanded to handle regular Times features. All Times subscribers will receive the News.

Police Close 4 Gulfport Stores

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP) — Police Sunday closed four groceries and a self-service laundry on Simmons.

charges of violating state blue laws by operating on Sunday.

Four of the operators were released on bonds and the fifth was paroled to Mayor R. B. Meadows Jr. Hearings will be held Thursday before Municipal Judge J. U. Simmons.

The arrests were made on affidavits signed by two Baptist ministers and a layman. Three church groups and a civic club recently protested the opening of grocery stores on Sunday.

Vote "Yes" to No. 1

KEEP LSU OUT OF POLITICS

Amendment No. 1 proposes to cut the terms of members of the LSU Board of Supervisors from fourteen years to nine years.

Certainly in a period of nine years, there will come along a number of graduates of LSU who would serve with honor and distinction on the LSU Board.

If approved, this amendment will result in more representative administration of university affairs and will make membership on the Board open to more LSU graduates.

Minnesota Sniffs Roses, No. 1 Rating In Iowa Upset

Arkansas, Ole Miss Enhance Bowl Chances

By MARTIN LADER
United Press International

Minnesota's Gophers, all but downed on their own campus last year, today appear headed for the nation's most lucrative post-season game — the Rose Bowl — following their 27-10 upset victory over top-ranked Iowa last Saturday.

Washington, winner of the Pasadena classic last New Year's Day and 34-0 victor over Southern California Saturday, is the top choice to fill the spot against Minnesota while Missouri, Mississippi and Arkansas also furthered their prospects of bowl assignments with weekend victories.

With two weeks of the season to go, here's how the picture for major bowl games shapes up:

Rose — Washington (7-1) vs. Minnesota (7-0).

Sugar — Mississippi (7-0-1) vs. Baylor (5-2) or Rice (5-2).

Orange — Missouri (8-0) vs. Duke (6-1).

Cotton — Arkansas (6-2) vs. Alabama (5-1-1) or Navy (7-1).

What proved to be a glory-packed Saturday for some schools, however, resulted in a day of misery for other major powers as half the nation's top 10 teams went down to defeat.

DUKE DROPS NAVY

Joining kingly Iowa on the deficit ledger were third-ranked Navy (19-10 to Duke), eighth-ranked Tennessee (14-7 to Georgia Tech), ninth-ranked Syracuse (9-6 to Army) and 10th-ranked Rice (3-0 to Arkansas).

Fourth-ranked Missouri defeated Colorado 14-0, fifth-ranked Ohio State ripped Indiana, 30-7, and sixth-ranked Mississippi trounced Chattanooga, 45-0.

Minnesota, which had a 2-7 record last year and finished at the bottom of the Big 10, completed its spectacular rise before a record home crowd of 65,610. The second-ranked Gophers took advantage of three Iowa fumbles to score their seventh straight victory without a loss.

Seventh-ranked Washington also capitalized on fumbles to tighten its Rose Bowl chances. George Fleming was the scoring star for the Huskies, running 65 yards for a first-period touchdown, kicking field goals of 25 and 35 yards and also converting four extra points.

Mississippi, which defeated Louisiana State, 21-0, in the Sugar Bowl last New Year's Day, strengthened its chance to defend its title by routing Chattanooga.

Baylor lost to Texas, 12-7, last Saturday while Rice lost by a field goal to Arkansas, but will be in line for the Sugar Bowl bids if they finish high in the Southwest Conference.

Missouri, undefeated in eight games, and Duke, with one loss in seven contests, both came through tough tests Saturday. The Tigers, sparked by a 53-yard touchdown run by halfback Norm Beal, had to come from behind to down Colorado while Duke also had to overcome a deficit to defeat previously-unbeaten Navy.

The Middles are keeping silent about any post-season games for a while, but they are a possibility for the Cotton Bowl or another bowl. Arkansas kicked itself into first place in the Southwest Conference, the champion of which will host the Cotton Bowl, on a 26-yard field goal by Mickey Cissell with 25 seconds remaining in the game.

'Bounce' Play Not Part Of Auburn Plan

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Auburn's Bryant Harvard pulled "a play we didn't know we had" as the Tigers defeated Mississippi State 27-12 Saturday, coach Ralph (Shug) Jordan says.

Lightheartedly discussing the Early second quarter incident when Harvard recovered his own fumble and scooted 54 yards, Jordan described the play as "where the quarterback takes the ball from center, bounces it like a basketball one time and then runs 50 yards."

The coach said he was "tremendously pleased" with the Tigers' overall performance, though he found their play "spotty" particularly in tackling and blocking.

And, the coach added, he was "extremely worried" at halftime when his team was ahead 6 to 0 by virtue of two field goals, but had played "lathlessly" the previous few minutes. However, the Tigers recovered their spirit and Jordan said the third quarter saw their best performance of the game.

Speaking as moderator of a television showing of the game, Jordan credited Mississippi State with a "mighty fine team." He said State's Mackie Weaver is "one of the finest fullbacks we've played against all year."

Doug Atkins of the Chicago Bears is the National Football League's largest defensive end. He stands 6 feet, 8 inches tall and weighs 255 pounds.

Byrd, Jesuit Tie For First In UPI Triple-A Rankings

By EUGENE V. KNISPEL
United Press International

Byrd comes up again this week to tie mighty Jesuit in the No. 1 spot of state Class AAA football standings even though its 37-0 defeat of Ouachita over the week-end stood in the shadow of Jesuit's 40-0 rout of St. Stanislaus of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Oddly enough, United Press International's board of coaches last week put Byrd second to the Blue Jays of New Orleans after the Jays had been idle and the Shreveport team beat Springhill, 41-14.

The rest of the UPI top 10 also remains pretty much the same, with Baton Rouge at third, LaGrange at fourth, DeLaSalle at fifth and Sulphur at sixth.

The Capital City crew dumped Terrebonne, 26-8, knocking the losers out of a tie for the bottom rung of the elite ladder. LaGrange barely got by stubborn Sulphur, 13-10, and DeLaSalle rested.

Seventh-place St. Aloisius trades places with Bolton, which was No. 8. Bolton rode New Iberia down, 47-7, while St. Aloisius squeaked a 14-13 win over cross-town rival Holy Cross.

Istrouma inches up out of the 10th-place tie to a solo No. 9 position, having gotten past unpredictable Bogalusa 20-18. Warren Easton, 32-0 winner over West Jefferson, revisits the mythical cream of the crop at the bottom of the list.

DeLaSalle seriously endangers its No. 5 position and a perfect 9-0 record this week by going against Jesuit for the only game inside the top 10. Sulphur could get real trouble from Lafayette. And Warren Easton has a fight on its hands in an intra-city match against Fortier.

Following are the class AAA teams rated tops in the state this week by the United Press International coaches' rating board. Ten points has been given for each first-place vote, nine for second-place votes, etc. First place votes, if any, and team records are in parenthesis.

Teams	Total Points
1. Jesuit (3) (6-1)	46
2. Byrd (2) (9-0)	46
3. Baton Rouge (7-0)	40
4. LaGrange (6-1)	35
5. DeLaSalle (9-0)	33
6. Sulphur (5-2-1)	21
7. Bolton (6-2-1)	19
8. St. Aloisius (8-1)	15
9. Istrouma (5-3)	11
10. Warren Easton (4-3)	3

Other teams mentioned in the voting plus the number of points they received: Fair Park 2, Lafayette 2, West Monroe 2.

3. Minnesota, beat Iowa 27-10
4. Navy, lost to Duke 18-10
5. Ohio State, beat Indiana 30-7
6. Mississippi, beat Chattanooga 45-0
7. Washington, beat USC 34-0
8. Tennessee, lost to Georgia Tech 14-7
9. Syracuse, lost to Army 9-6
10. Rice, lost to Arkansas 3-0

Kilmer Gives Full A-To-Z Performance

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—In a football sense UCLA's Bill Kilmer lives up to the motto of his Azusa, Calif., hometown — "Everything from A to Z in the USA."

He can run, pass, punt and fake in a manner which brings him plenty of West Coast support for All America honors this campaign.

Take, for instance, his performance Saturday against California as the Bruins triumphed 28-0 in their Big Five battle.

The 186-pound senior passed and ran for 223 yards, set up all four touchdowns and scored two of them. One of his punts, a quick kick, traveled 73 yards for a m scrumage, and he averaged 51 yards booting in the afternoon.

After the long quick kick, he utilized the respect being shown his foot to complete a couple of long gain passes out of a fake kick maneuver just to further beduddle the Bears.

"Kilmer is a great back," says Bruin Coach Bill Barnes of the fellow many call the best tailback in UCLA history. "He has lots of command and can move the team. And he's a fine runner."

Bill figured the afternoon against California was his best for rushing since he gained 109 yards on 16 carries for a 6.83 average. Passing, he hit 8 of 11 attempts for 116 yards.

Against Purdue as the two clubs tied 27-27, Kilmer completed 9 of 16 passes for 226 yards but gained only 42 yards rushing in 13 carries. That 226 total was his largest for an afternoon this fall, but against California he didn't see action at all in the fourth quarter as Barnes reached well down into his reserve list.

UCLA now posts a 4-1-1 record, having played just six games where other Big Five teams have eight. But Kilmer remains well in the conference total offense lead with 1,048 yards and four games yet to play.

Korean Booters Win
SEOUL (UPI)—The Republic of Korea defeated Japan, 2-1, Sunday in the first of a two-game elimination series for the seventh world soccer championship in 1962. It was the first sports event held here between Korea and Japan since the end of World War II.

Florida Ranked No. 1 Prospect For Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The Gator Bowl selection committee has made Florida its No. 1 choice for the Dec. 31 football game here.

Florida was impressive in beating Georgia 22-14 here Saturday and now has a season record of 6-2. The Gators still must play Tulane and Miami.

The bowl committee also favors Pittsburgh or Texas as the other team—depending on how they fare in the rest of their games.

Other teams mentioned as possibilities include Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi, Georgia Tech, Rice, Arkansas, Navy, Duke, North Carolina State and Oregon.

Oil paintings of 16 members of the National Jockeys Hall of Fame will be on display in the Pimlico clubhouse during the autumn racing season, Nov. 14-Dec. 15.

Court Will Rule On A's Stock Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—Judge Robert J. Dunne is expected to decide today whether probate court has the jurisdiction to resolve a dispute over the possible sale of the Kansas City Athletics' baseball club.

Involved in the battle are the co-executors of the will of the late Arnold Johnson of Chicago who owned 52 per cent of the club's stock.

The City National Bank of Chicago and Mrs. Warren M. Humes of New York, the remarried widow of Johnson, are the co-executors. The bank has received offers of approximately $3.5 million from interested groups in Kansas City and St. Louis and has asked that the court direct the sale of the stock.

Mrs. Humes does not want to sell. She thinks the stock is a good investment and wants her 10-year-old son, Jeffrey Johnson, to own the ball club someday.

Mrs. Humes' attorney, Harold L. Bernstein, Friday questioned whether the court can rule on sale of the stock when the co-executors cannot agree. He also said the court must view the stock as Mrs. Humes' property.

Attorney John Angelo, representing the bank, reaffirmed the bank's stand that Mrs. Humes is not the owner of the stock but only is a co-executor.

SOUTHEASTERN ROUNDUP

Possible Tennessee Wrath Makes Mississippi Uneasy

By VERNON BUTLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Unbeaten and uneasy, Mississippi footballers took a cautious look eastward today and wondered if there's anything more dangerous than a wounded Tennessee Volunteer.

Next Saturday's collision of the Southeastern Conference giants may have lost some of its "game of the year" glitter when Georgia Tech upset Tennessee last week.

But the game is still fraught with meaning — and peril — for Mississippi championship hopes.

Ole Miss has never beaten Tennessee in Knoxville. Should history continue repeating itself, either Florida or Auburn could win the SEC title.

Mississippi, with three conference victories and a tie, must hurdle Tennessee and Mississippi State to finish atop the standings.

Florida and Auburn each boast 4-1 records; with Florida meeting Tulane this week in its last SEC game, Auburn could move ahead of the Gators by whipping Georgia at home this week and Alabama at Birmingham Nov. 26.

Alabama (3-1-1) plays Tech this week in Atlanta. Florida must lose in Tulane for "Tama to have a shot at the title, even if Tennessee blurs the picture with a victory over Ole Miss.

Other games this week include Mississippi State at Louisiana States, William and Mary at Vanderbilt and Xavier at Kentucky.

Florida topped Georgia 22-14 and Tech shocked Tennessee 14-7 in last week's big surprises. Also surprising was the ease with which Kentucky mauled Vanderbilt 27-0 and the 35-21 trouncing Texas Tech administered to Tulane.

Auburn downed Mississippi State 27-12 as 30,000 homecoming fans marveled at Ed Dwyer's 21-point spree. The Auburn fullback posted a new national record for field goals in one season (9) and tied the mark for a career (13) by kicking two against State.

He scored two touchdowns and added three conversions to send his season point total soaring to 47.

Mississippi routed Chattanooga 45-0 and Alabama walloped Furman 51-0. LSU raised a few eyebrows with the magnitude of its 35-6 conquest of South Carolina.

Individual standouts continued to blossom. Dwyer enjoyed the largest day, but he was pressed by Tech halfback Billy Williamson. Florida fullback Don Goodman and quarterback Larry Libertore, Tulane halfback Tommy Mason, LSU quarterback Lynn Amedee, Williamson hauled a Tennessee

Van Brocklin Has Eagles In Front

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International
Norm Van Brocklin of the Philadelphia Eagles is challenging Johnny Unitas of the Baltimore Colts as the National Football League's quarterback-of-the-year, and the battle could go all the way to the championship play-off.

Van Brocklin, who at 33 is having one of his greatest pro seasons, threw three touchdown passes Sunday as the Eagles crushed the Pittsburgh Steelers, 34-7, and took over sole possession of first place in the Eastern Division with a 5-1 record. In all, he completed 19 of 30 passes for a total of 295 yards.

Unitas also had the kind of a day that won him all-pro honors for the last two seasons. He tossed four touchdown passes in a 38-24 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. Unitas connected on 20 of 29 for 324 yards. The win boosted the Colts (5-2) back into the Western Division lead.

Meanwhile, the New York Giants remained in contention the hard way — largely by grinding out yardage on the wet field in Cleveland, where they upset the Browns, 17-13, before a crowd of 82,872. The victory over the Giants (4-1-1) up to second place in the Eastern sector and dumped the Browns (4-2) to third.

CARDS WALLOP REDSKINS
In other games, the St. Louis Cardinals trounced the Washington Redskins, 44-7, as John Roach threw three TD passes to Sonny Randle; the Los Angeles Rams sent the Dallas Cowboys down to their seventh straight defeat, 30-

13, and the Detroit Lions surprised the San Francisco Forty-Niners, 24-0.

The Houston Oilers pulled away from the field in the Eastern Division of the American Football League when George Blanda connected on four touchdown passes in a 45-25 victory over the Denver Broncos, the Dallas Texans beat the Buffalo Bills, 45-28.

The crowd at Cleveland was the biggest ever to see a game there. And the 58,234 which turned out for the Eagles-Steelers was the second largest ever to watch an NFL game in Philadelphia. A total of 285,819 paid their way into the six NFL games Sunday. The two AFL games drew 34,000.

Van Brocklin completed touchdown passes of 24, 39 and 28 to Tommy McDonald as the Eagles beat the Steelers for their fifth straight.

UNITAS BREAKS TIE

A crowd of 57,006 at Baltimore watched the Packers rally to tie the Colts at 24-24 in the final period on Paul Hornung's 21-yard field goal. Unitas then hit Ray Berry with a 15-yard scoring pass and after Baltimore intercepted a Packers pass a few minutes later, Alex Hawkins sprinted 13 yards for the clinching score.

Mel Triplett gained more rushing yardage than Jimmy Brown, the Giants' magnificent defense held the Browns to a net gain of six yards in the freezing wind and intermittent snow flurries at Cleveland.

Triplett gained 133 yards in 24 carries while Brown, the NFL's leading ball-carrier, gained only 29 yards in 11 carries and Mitchell picked up 14 in 9 attempts.

Groom, 4 Racers Burn To Death At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Fire swept through 24 stalls and small living space in a Fair Grounds barn Sunday night, burning to death a groom and destroying four thoroughbred horses.

The groom was tentatively identified as Emile Bleriot, about 32. He lived in the barn caring for the four horses which were in training for the fall season opening Thanksgiving Day.

Pat O'Brien of Covington, owner of the horses, valued them at a total of $15,000. He listed them as Taharac, 3, My Janice, 4, Miss Oech, 2, and Mr. Benson, 2.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started from an electric heater or hot plate in the living quarters and the groom was apparently trapped there.

34 FOREIGN CARS AVERAGE 40.24 MILES PER GALLON IN MOBIL MILEAGE RALLY

THE RALLY...

34 makes and models of foreign cars recently competed for economy honors in the Mobil Mileage Rally. Travelling at normal speeds, obeying all traffic laws, the cars on this 201-mile event demonstrated the top mileage possible from imported cars using Mobil—The New Car Gasoline. Entire run was supervised by the United States Auto Club.

THE ROUTE

Starting from the New York Coliseum, these foreign cars traveled a course designed as a rugged test of their mileage potential. They met a wide range of driving conditions—cruising the expressways of Long Island and New Jersey... along the Hudson River to a long, steep climb up Bear Mountain... weaving around curving country lanes... and down Connecticut's new Turnpike to the finish line at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Horses May Save Baseball Losses

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK UPI—It couldn't have happened during the diamond reign of Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis, but cherubic Bill MacDonald of Miami is hoping that a horse will get him even for his baseball losses.

Judge Landis saved baseball after the 1919 Black Sox scandal by placing it under such rigid supervision that public faith was restored. Never would he permit his

Lakers Almost Blow 26-Point Lead To Nats

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Can a professional basketball team blow a 26 point lead with 15 minutes left?

The Los Angeles Lakers almost did Sunday night when they edged Syracuse 119-113 in the only game in the National Basketball Association.

With just 30 seconds to play, Dick Barnett and Dolph Schayes pulled the Nats to within two points at 115-113.

But the pressing Nats fouled the Lakers' Bob Leonard twice in the final half minute and Leonard drilled home four straight free throws to ice the Los Angeles victory.

Schayes led the scorers with 31 points, 19 of them in the second half. The Lakers were paced by Rod Hundley's 29. Frank Selvy had 26 and Elgin Baylor bucketed 20 for Los Angeles.

The crowd was estimated at 2,000—far below the expectations of those who have been trying to promote an NBA franchise for San Francisco.

The league president, Maurice Podoloff, attended the game. Asked about the league's expansion plans, Podoloff said the NBA probably would include Chicago and Pittsburgh next season, San Francisco? Maybe in 1962-63, Podoloff said. And the stress was on "maybe."

The victory completed a week-end sweep of the Nats by the Lakers. They beat Syracuse 112-110 in a nationally televised game in Los Angeles Saturday as Baylor scored 40 points, rookie Jerry West added 25 and Jim Krebs put it away with a hook shot with 5 seconds left.

Recreation Grid Quiz

The Recreation Grid Quiz, entering its ninth week, caught up with some area forecasters over the weekend with a rash of upsets sweeping through some of the nation's top football powers.

This week's list will be just as confusing but someone has to win the forecasting trophy, regardless of upsets.

Contenders for the title circle the names of teams they think will win this week and mail to "Recreation Grid Quiz, P. O. box 1293 Monroe" postmarked no later than Thursday, Nov. 10th.

But times have changed. John W. Galbreath, president of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, has large racing interests.

Several of his chargers are nominated for the Pimlico Futurity and the Marguerite Stakes.

Mrs. Charles S. Payson, principal stockholder in the proposed new National League club in New York, is another noted horse owner.

Baseball aside, she is better known as co-owner of the Green-Ten Stable with her brother, John Hay Whitney, the U.S. ambassador to England.

MacDonald, the pink-cheeked sportsman who promotes golf tournaments, is commodore of a yacht club and a director of Tropical Park, can be well pleased that the stern-faced judge no longer is at the baseball helm and that times, indeed, have altered as far as racing associations are concerned.

His Miami Marlins of the International League lost $250,000 last season.

His filly, Royal Native, has earned $222,495 in purses this year.

"She can get me even for the season," quips the ever-smiling MacDonald, "if she'll win the $25,000 Gallorette Stakes at Pimlico on Dec. 3."

Bill paid $252,500 for the filly last March because "I just had to have her."

"Sure, it was a lot of coconuts," he nods, "but I took one look and I was a goner. I just had to own this filly. I didn't know whether she'd ever get me even but, my, ain't she purty?"

The filly has done much more than just look "purty." This year she has won the Columbiana, Black Helen, Suwannee River, Colonial, Top Flight, Molly Pitcher and Arlington Matron Stakes.

Tech Makes Gulf Wide Open Race

By JOHN T. PAYTON
United Press International
The struggle for the Gulf States Conference football title is wide open again after defending champion Louisiana Tech, knocked Southeastern from the unbeaten ranks over the weekend.

Tech, now showing a 6-2 record, bumped off Southeastern 17-14 on the strength of an 86-yard punt return in the last two minutes of play.

Reserve halfback Jack Lestage took a Lion punt in the fading minutes and turned a 14-10 deficit into victory. The loss dropped Southeastern to 7-1 with two games left. Southeastern was ranked 7th nationally before the game and Tech was in eighth position.

The other team still in the title picture, McNeese State, won its sixth game in eight outings by dropping Northwestern State 20-7. A McNeese victory over Southeastern next week would give all three teams identical 7-2 records—that is if Louisiana Tech can manage a win over Mississippi Southern.

In the McNeese game, the throwing arm of quarterback Don Breaux was the margin of victory. He tossed scoring passes of 34 and 15 yards.

In other GSC games, the University of Southwestern Louisiana topped Pensacola Naval Air station 20-14. USL scored twice in the first quarter and once in the fourth to beat the Navymen.

In the final game, Delta State of Mississippi blanked hapless Northeast 27-0. It was a scoreless duel at the half, but Delta came on strong in the final two periods to score on passes of 33, 27, and 5 yards and a 32-yard pass interception.

Pensacola's Johnny Arms completed 16 of 23 passes for two touchdowns—but it wasn't enough to offset USL scores of runs of

Speed Boater Is Paralyzed After Accident

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Race driver Mickey Thompson suffered a compression fracture of a vertebra—paralyzing his legs—as he sped across Lake Mead at 175 miles per hour Sunday.

His 1,000-h. p. hydroplane, Challenger, bounced into the air when it hit a wave during a demonstration drag race at preliminaries to next week's Gold Cup races.

Thompson bounced high in the seat, holding on to the wheel, and was coming down when the boat hit another wave and bounced up.

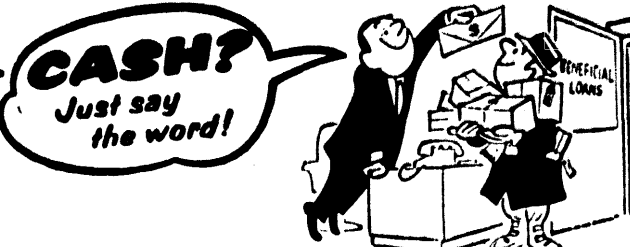

Thompson, holder of the U. S. land speed mark of 363.67 m.p.h., couldn't operate his foot throttle 12 and 6 yards and a 45-yard pass play.

At Boulder City Hospital doctors said the 31-year-old El Monte, Calif., driver was in generally good condition. "We're hoping the paralysis is a temporary condition," his physician said.

Tired of Taxes?

VOTE NO TO NO. 8!

Amendment 8 would cost Louisiana Taxpayers $35 Million!

It will cost the Monroe area $1,040,000!

Amendment 8 would continue the Confederate Veterans' Pension Tax another TEN YEARS and give a whopping $35,000,000 to the Department of Public Works for Toledo Bend Dam and other unwarranted projects.

This Tax is no longer needed and SHOULD BE REMOVED!

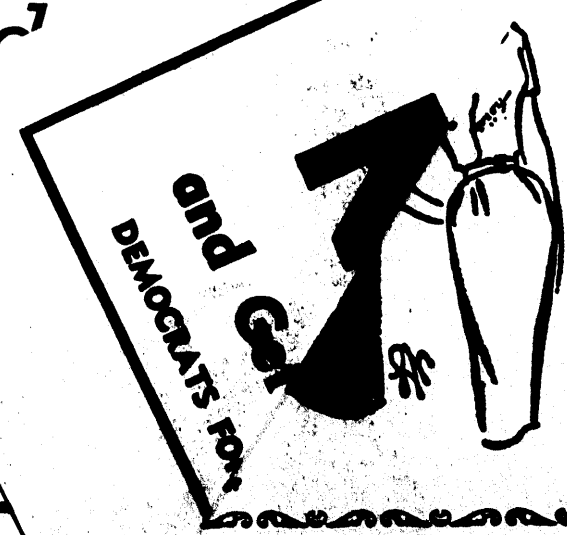

This is why You should oppose Amendment No. 8!

1. Why spend $30 million of your money on an unneeded dam and lake in Western Louisiana when the state is already facing financial difficulties?
2. Why spend $30 million of your money to flood the homes and farms of over 2,000 persons? Where would they go? NO FINANCIAL PROVISIONS have been made to resettle these people.
3. Why spend $30 million of your money for another white elephant whose only assured source of income is the sale of power? This would be insufficient to operate the dam and retire bonds.
4. Why spend $30 million of your money to prevent industrial development North of the dam from Leesville to Logansport, on the Sabine River, where payrolls are needed?
5. Why spend $30 million of your money to close existing industries because of Toledo Bend Lake? Louisiana has lost 23,000 jobs since 1953 and we stand to lose another 1,000 jobs if this dam is built?
6. Why spend $30 million of your money to destroy nearly 200,000 acres of farm and timberlands and reduce the supply of raw material essential to the operation of 12 mills and woodyards, jeopardizing their operation. Fifteen hundred men work at these plants which returns $12,000,000 to region each year.

TUESDAY

Record Vote In Election Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An apparent record number of voters from Maine to Hawaii will choose Tuesday between Richard M. Nixon and John F. Kennedy as the 35th president — the man they want to lead the nation in the troublesome 1960's.

The winner may be known early Tuesday night or perhaps not until sometime Wednesday. But in each of the last seven presidential elections, from 1932 to 1956, the man who was leading in returns counted at 7 p.m., EST, election day won the White House.

Both candidates were campaigning up to the last minute. Kennedy, who spent Sunday in the New York area, scheduled appearances in New England Monday and will appear on CBS-TV at 11 P.M. EST. He will spend election night at his Hyannis Port, Mass., home.

Nixon, who travelled to Alaska Sunday, campaigns in the Madison, Wis., Detroit and Chicago areas Monday topped off by a four-hour television marathon on Monday from 2 to 6 p.m., EST, over the ABC network.

Anything Can Happen
He then joins President Eisenhower and GOP Vice Presidential Candidate Henry Cabot Lodge on a half-hour TV program over the CBS network at 9:30 p.m. EST. Nixon will spend election night in Los Angeles.

As of Sunday night, most of the major presidential polls reported Kennedy leading Nixon. However the pollsters agreed anything could happen. Seldom have they run into such a stubborn "undecided" vote.

This raised the question: Are these people really "undecided" or are they just not talking, maybe because of the religious issue?

The winner must roll up too electoral votes. The key states were New York with its 45 votes, Pennsylvania and California with 32 each, Ohio with 25, Illinois with 27, Ohio with 25, Texas with 24 and Michigan with 20.

Also to be elected Tuesday are 34 senators and 437 House members to serve in the 87th Congress that convenes Jan. 3. The Republicans have no chance of winning control of the Senate and little of taking over the House. Twenty-seven of the 50 states will elect governors.

In winding up his campaign, Nixon hammered at the idea that he and his democratic rival were "exact opposites." He said Kennedy favors government action and spending over individual action and spending. He also struck at Kennedy on the Quemoy-Matsu and Cuban issues.

Found "Great Tide"
Nixon, who has always maintained the election would be close conceded two or three weeks ago that he was lagging behind Kenedy. But during the last week he has said he found "a great tide" turning in his direction.

Kennedy was confident but cautious. In his final appearances, he hit the theme that if elected he would be a leader trying to "start this country moving again." He proposed a massive defense buildup, along with expansion of such programs as medical care for the aged.

Time and again he struck at the "stand-patism" of the Eisenhower administration. This GOP attitude, he said, had permitted the prestige of this country to drop vis-a-vis Russia with its spectacular space feats.

As poll opening time drew near there were two imponderables in the election — the religious issue and the effect of president Eisenhower's massive 11th-hour effort to roll up a Nixon victory.

Claim Materials On Road Defective

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Highway director Ray Burgess said Sunday all materials used on the Sulphur-DeQuincy highway have met contract requirements.

Burgess' statement was made on a suit filed by W. T. Burton of Lake Charles last Friday.

D. Ross Banister, legal counsel for the state highway department, said Burton filed suit to halt what he called substitution of uncrushed oyster shell although contract specifications call for crushed shell.

The suit claimed the substitution made on part of the 15-mile project would enable the contractor to save $40,000 to $50,000.

William J. Dodd, one of Burton's legal counsel, said an alternate proposal which allowed the substitution is "too discretionary because it permits the highway director to decide, for practical purposes, which contractor will be awarded the contract."

Burgess said, "Our testing laboratory, under the direction of Hermann L. Lehmann of Baton Rouge, has inspected all materials placed on the roadway or stockpiled for future use. All material in the project has been tested and satisfies the requirements of the contract."

"The suit filed by Mr. Burton does not charge that a change in materials was made but that the material is sub-standard."

"This is not true, Mr. Lehmann has assured me that the graded reef shell and sand supplied by Flenniken Construction Co., Inc., of Shreveport, has been approved, and Mr. Lehmann's laboratory is considered one of the best in the nation."

The suit filed Friday is the second brought by Burton in connection with the project. He abandoned an earlier suit filed in Calcasieu Parish.

Festive Fall Parties Honor Engaged Couple

Preluding the November 25 wedding in Tallulah of Miss Dorothy Sevier and Wayne Gordon Elliott are social events honoring the engaged couple, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sevier Jr. of Tallulah and Mrs. J. Gordon Elliott of Monroe.

Mrs. N. A. White and Mrs. Robert Cagnolatti entertained with a bridge luncheon at the White home on Tuesday, November 1, complimentary to the popular bride-elect. For the occasion she wore a three-piece sport costume in red, white and black, and she and her mother, Mrs. W. P. Sevier were presented with red and white carnation corsages. Arrangements of coral dahlias decorated the serving table, and on each bridge table was a single dahlia of the same shade. The high score prize was won by Mrs. E. B. Towne and second high by Mrs. Jack Folk. The bride-elect was presented with a silver serving spoon.

Sherry was served before the three course luncheon to Miss Dorothy Sevier, Mrs. W. P. Sevier, Mrs. J. D. Caldwell, Mrs. Louis Toner, Mrs. Robert Wiley, Gandy Jr., Mrs. Louis Buckner, Mrs. E. B. Towne, Mrs. Lamar T. Lee Jr., Mrs. Barton Sevier, Mrs. Katharine McCusick, Mrs. Jack Folk and Mrs. Rufus T. Yerger.

SUPPER PARTY
Miss Sevier and Mr. Elliott were honor guests at a cocktail-supper party at the Tallulah home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bailey Jr., on Saturday evening, October 29. The bride-elect wore a becoming flame red faille cocktail dress and her mother, Mrs. W. P. Sevier Jr. wore black. They were presented with white carnation corsages. The host gift to the couple was a silver vegetable dish.

Mrs. Abington Honored By Mrs. Kellogg

Mrs. R. D. Kellogg entertained with a luncheon Wednesday, November 2, complimentary to Mrs. Merle A. Abington, a newcomer to the community.

The gleam of porch of Bayou D'Arbonne Country Club reflected an autumnal theme. The green-covered table was festive with a large wicker cornucopia overflowing with brown and gold chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Placed down the table from the center arrangement were five small cornucopias filled with tiny pumpkins in harmonizing shades.

Bright autumn leaves decorated the cards which marked places for the hostess, honoree, Mrs. J. D. ALONG The OUACHITA

IN NEW ORLEANS for the weekend were Mrs. E. T. Lamkin and Mrs. Guy Campbell.

MISS GRETCHEN MASUR visited in Dallas from Thursday to Sunday as guest of her sister, Miss Jackie Masur, a student at SMU. Of interest to friends is news that the latter was one of 40 junior coeds tapped by "Kirkos," honorary organization for junior women.

BETSEY ELAINE is the name given to the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Berry, born November 3. Grandparents are Mrs. Willie Berry of Swartz and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ricks of Monroe. Mrs. Berry will be remembered as Miss Sharon Brooks.

MRS. ALBIN P. LASSITER spent the weekend in Shreveport making plans for an organizational meeting to be held at the Captain Shreve Hotel Friday, November 18 for the purpose of forming a chapter for Northeast State College alumni in Shreveport. Mrs. Lassiter is secretary of Northeast's Alumni Association.

LEAVING TOMORROW for two weeks of sightseeing in Paris are Mrs. Perry Daniel and Mrs. Walter Reed.

Christmas Plans Made By Sorority

Plans for the annual Christmas dinner and dance were discussed by members of Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi when they met Thursday night at St. Paul's Methodist Church.

The holiday affair is scheduled for Friday, December 9 at the Paragon Club.

During the business session conducted by Miss Joyce Lanier, plans were also made for a white elephant sale at the next meeting, November 17. Members were also requested to bring articles for a food basket for a needy family Thanksgiving.

As a service project for December, the group will make cookies for the Veterans' hospital in Alexandria, to be delivered December 9.

The program for the evening on "Personality and Relationship," was presented by Mrs. Robert Whitlaw, Mrs. Norman Smith and Miss Lanier.

During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Bob Demoss and Mrs. Phil Groves. A seasonal arrangement of autumn foliage and leaves graced one end of the table, with the coffee service opposite.

Ham Under Stage, Too

NEW YORK (AP) — There's plenty on view on stage at the Playhouse, where the hit, "The Miracle Worker," is running — and there's some offbeat activity out of view, under the stage. That's where Charlie Bellin, the company electrician, operates his amateur radio station. The ham operator, using the call letters WAZCAQ, has talked to hams all over the nation.

When Bellin mentions he is operating from beneath the Broadway stage, there's usually a lot of lively conversation about the show. Now, some of the other hams open conversations by asking, "How's business?"

Pull Some New Tricks To Make Your Own Name

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: For eleven years I have been married to a man who has had me running in a contest with his mother. No matter what I do, his mother could have done it better, faster and cheaper. It's true, his mother is a very able woman, but in my own way I do all right, too. If he eats something at her house that he likes, I try to make it for him at home, but it never comes out like hers. (Maybe I try too hard?) His mother knits things for him, so I learned to knit, but he never wears my things—only hers. I really like his mother, but she makes everything so difficult for me because she is such an expert. Am I childish for feeling hurt and how can I overcome it? —NO MATCH FOR MAMMA

DEAR NO Don't try to compete with your husband's mother. She is at least 20 years ahead of you, and always will be. Use a little originality, and quit knocking yourself out trying to top someone who became tops through years of practice and experience.

DEAR ABBY: Bill (not his real name) and I are very much in love, but we are not old enough to get married without our parents' consent. We thought if we "had" to get married they would sign for us, so we went ahead and followed that plan. Now it turns out that our parents refuse to sign for us. Bill is on probation and we were told the authorities would force him to marry me after getting me in this condition, but we discovered that wasn't true, either. Can you help us, Abby? I am 15 and Bill is 14. I want to keep my baby, but everybody is against it. —IN TROUBLE

DEAR ABBY I have been reading a lot lately about people who have "willed" their eyes to a blind person. I am over 21 and would like to do this. How do I go about it, please? —JAY L.

DEAR JAY: Get in touch with an International Lions Club or the Medical School in your area for full particulars.

DEAR ABBY Maybe you can help us barbers. Why do women wait until Saturday to bring their kids in for haircuts? These women have all day. Why can't they bring them in after school? When working men come into the barber shop on Saturday, it is always full of kids.

Also, we barbers would rather have fathers bring in their kids than mothers. The women stand around the chair and tell the barber how to cut hair. I wish the days would come back when no respectable woman would be seen in a barber shop. —BARBER

German Navy Chief During Nazi Era Dies

KIEL, Germany (AP) — Grand Adm. Erich Raeder, 84, who headed Germany's navy during most of the Hitler regime, died Sunday.

Sentenced to a life term at the Nuernberg war crimes trial, he was released in 1955 because of ill health. He was partially paralyzed and a mental patient when death came to him in his sleep at the Kiel Neurological Clinic.

"The grand admiral simply faded away," said his legal guardian, former Adm. Werner Fuchs. Raeder, a Prussian, became head of the German navy in 1928, during the Weimar republic, and held the position until 1943. He led the development of the pocket battleship and the submarine fleet that took such a heavy toll of Allied convoys during World War II.

When the submarine campaign was going badly in 1943, Raeder wanted to build up the surface fleet. Hitler, deciding instead to increase the U-boats, gave Raeder the largely honorific title of "admiral inspector" and replaced him as head of the navy with Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz.

Gives Up Planes To Ride Horseback

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—A former Air Force master sergeant has given up airplanes to ride horseback 1,000 miles to Detroit.

James W. Keller of Leesburg left this south Georgia city Sunday on the first leg of a trip expected to take about 25 days. He is traveling the hard way, not even stopping at hotels.

"I'll sleep in my bedroll along the way while the horse gets in some grazing," he said.

JOHN F. ISELIN and JOAN R. ISELIN, Plaintiffs vs. LESTER J. MENG, LESTER J. MENG, JR., and JAMES C. MENG, Defendants.
CIVIL ACTION NO. 7066
ORDER
Upon Motion of JOHN F. ISELIN and JOAN R. ISELIN, Plaintiffs, for an order directing LESTER J. MENG, LESTER J. MENG, JR., and JAMES C. MENG, Defendants, to appear, plead or answer in accordance with Section 1655 of Title 14 of the United States Code, it is appearing to the Court that this is an action to remove a cloud upon the title to real property, and that the jurisdiction of this Court, more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Fractional Section 17, containing 112.25 acres, and all accretions thereto;
Fractional Section 19, containing 144.25 acres, and all accretions thereto;
Fractional Section 20, containing 156.12 acres, and all accretions thereto;
Fractional Section 21, containing 165.91 acres, and all accretions thereto;
Fractional Section 22, containing 176.25 acres, and all accretions thereto;
Fractional Section 23, containing 172.43 acres, and all accretions thereto.

All of said Fractional Sections and accretions now being in Township 14, Range 2, Parish of Madison, State of Louisiana, less and except certain lands of 1867 towards land in the southern part of Sections 18, 20, 21 and 22 and described by and in the records in deed from Albert W. Iselin and Louise A. Iselin, in favor of the Meng Company.

It is, therefore, ordered that the Defendants, LESTER J. MENG, LESTER J. MENG, JR., and JAMES C. MENG, who reside at Natchez, Adams County, Mississippi, be and they are hereby directed to appear, plead and move or otherwise move with respect to the Complaint herein on or before the 20th day of December, 1960, or in default thereof this Court will proceed to the hearing and adjudication of this suit, and it is further ordered that this order be published in the MADISON JOURNAL of Tallulah, Louisiana, and MONROE MORNING WORLD of Monroe, Louisiana, once a week for six consecutive weeks beginning on or about the 1st day of November, 1960. Ordered and adjudged this 21st day of October, 1960.

They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo

Close Check Adds Profits To Farm Work

"An old saying is that the most important factor in livestock production is the eye of the herdsman."

This is the opening statement in an editorial issued by the Louisiana Agricultural Extension Service.

The editorial explains that "nothing else will prove effective if the livestock owner does not keep a close watch on his herd and understand everything that he sees."

The editorial pointed out that the same measure applies in other kinds of farming.

"Love of the soil, understanding of livestock and scientific farming methods will be of no avail as far as financial success is concerned unless the farmer is a good manager as well, and keeps a close eye on his entire farming operation."

The Extension Service estimates that many state farmers could add five to 10 per cent per year to their net incomes by spending as little as an hour a month in compiling and keeping farm records necessary to good management.

"Even this simple record," extension farm management specialists said, "will provide information on the basis of which a farmer can make more efficient use of cash and credit, file more complete and accurate tax returns, exert better control over expenses, and tell which farm operations are returning a profit and which are registering a loss."

Johnson Continues Stump In Texas

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Democratic vice-presidential candidate Lyndon B. Johnson today makes a whirlwind tour in a final effort to put his home state's 24 electoral votes in the Democratic column.

Johnson, who predicted a national victory for the Democratic slate in a speech Sunday at Houston, today campaigns in Houston, San Antonio and San Marcos, ending up in Austin for an open house and statewide television address tonight.

If there was no religious issue injected in this campaign Jack Kennedy would carry every state in the nation," Johnson told a crowd estimated by newsmen at 6,000.

"We must not convert our faith into a means of influencing the ballot box," The Senate majority leader said in the predominantly Latin-American and Catholic area. Some Texas Protestant ministers have opposed John F. Kennedy, a Roman Catholic.

Johnson hit at Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, saying "Nixon never served on the foreign relations committee, never dealt with foreign policy or national defense. He has been engaged in good-will tours. He went to London to

RIGOROUS CAMPAIGN

Strain Shows On Both Candidates

By United Press International

EDITOR'S NOTE: How are the presidential candidates standing up under the rigors of campaigning from dawn-to-midnight, back and forth across the country? Here are reports from the rival camps.

By the time Vice President Richard M. Nixon returns to California to vote Tuesday, he will have traveled more than 64,000 miles since his nomination last July.

During the course of this arduous campaigning, the Republican presidential candidate went into 50 states and 188 cities, and delivered 180 major speeches, plus many more relatively minor talks.

To wage such a campaign required a great deal of stamina and tolerance and Nixon looked tired as he neared the end of the campaign trail. His hoarse voice showed the strain of his efforts to win the election.

Nixon suffered several colds during the campaign, but always seemed to pull out of them faster than most of the men and women traveling with him.

Each time he recovered fairly rapidly with antibiotics to prevent throat infection, soothing lozenges and a slight increase in rest but no material alteration in his campaign schedule.

Nixon usually has managed to get about six hours sleep each night. He doesn't take pep pills, but when he found he had lost weight during his hospitalization for an infected knee, he began drinking one or two milkshakes a day and regained 10 pounds.

If there was a secret ingredient to account for his stamina it was not in medicine or magic diet. The best medicine for any minor ailments that popped up during the campaign was his burning desire to win.

His right shoulder and arm hurt frequently at the end of a day when he had shaken hands with hundreds, sometimes thousands of bystanders.

Sen. John F. Kennedy's staying power in the frenzy of the 1960 campaign doesn't surprise his staff as much as it amazes newsmen covering his activities. Kennedy has been campaigning strenuously for almost a year—not just six weeks—and has learned to live with the strain.

That strain reached an almost unbelievable point in the final week of campaigning as the Kennedy forces added additional speeches and lengthened the working day. Kennedy, for the first time, showed some signs of fatigue—his right hand became scratched and swollen from so many high-speed handshakes—but he still had more bounce after a shower and shave than most of the others in his entourage.

Actually, the Massachusetts senator takes the buffeting of the presidential campaign better than most of those around him because he has a slight advantage in the critical department of sleep.

Kennedy's personal plane has a private compartment in the rear section which includes a sleeping berth. While others on the 12-passenger Convair are sitting up on late flights, Kennedy slips into pajamas and grabs as much sleep in his bunk as he can.

He takes no pop-up pills or other stimulants to keep going. His greatest demand is a combined pick-me-up and food is for tomato soup, which he consumes often in flight.

The Democratic candidate appeared to be holding up well physically as he neared the end of a campaign that has taken him more than 43,000 miles in 45 states since his nomination in Los Angeles.

LADY NEARLY CHOKED WHILE LYING IN BED

One lady said she used to be afraid to go to bed. Stomach gas would rise up into her throat after she laid down and would nearly choke her. Had to prop herself up on pillows to breathe. Recently this lady got SYS-TONE and now says gas is gone; stomach feels fine. Sys-Tone clears out stomach gas fast; also contains iron and vitamins to build energy and quiet upset nerves. Costs only a few cents a day. So don't go on suffering. Get Sys-Tone. — All Druggists in Monroe and nearby towns.—Adv.

Times Sees Kennedy—But 'Ifs' Cited

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today that Sen. John F. Kennedy appears to have "A substantial lead" over Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the campaign enters its final day, according to a nationwide check of political opinion.

"However," the paper's special election campaign report added, "most of those in close touch with the political picture in the 50 states added a big 'if' to their analyses."

The Times has endorsed Kennedy editorially.

"A state-by-state survey, based on straw votes, public and private estimates by leaders of both parties and the opinions of political writers and editors, gave the following picture, the paper said:

Nixon is leading in 16 states with a total of 109 electoral votes; and

The remaining 15 states, with a total of 184 electoral votes, are reported to be too close to call either candidate has a discernible lead at this time.

Buy The Best In Cutlery At Royal Feed And Seed

Royal Feed and Seed Store boasts one of the largest displays of stainless steel cutlery anywhere in the country today. Royal Feed stocks Queen Cutlery, one of the leading brands in the nation, and all Queen products are guaranteed. The knives you find there — kitchen, pocket, hunting — and other items such as pinkie shears and scissors, will not rust. Once you buy a Queen knife, you can be sure of long wear. They keep a keen cutting edge, and shining look after years of use. Queen Cutlery takes great pride in its knife product. And Queen Steel is the finest in the world... made to the rigid specifications of the Queen Cutlery Company. It's made of .90 to 1.00 per cent carbon, while most other knife manufacturers still use .60 to .70 per cent carbon. It is this high carbon content that makes it possible for Queen Steel knives to hold their fine cutting edge... the feature for which they are famous. Remember! They are rust-proof and stain-proof; they are strong and tough and nothing but the finest in materials go into them. And remember they're on display at Royal Feed and Seed on DeSiard Street. Buy a Queen knife or other product. You really can't find anything better.

BY HORTICULTURIST

Value Of Pruning Fruit Trees Seen

While the total yield of a pruned tree is reduced, the economic value is increased. Fruit is larger and better generally than that of the unpruned tree, said Donald H. Spurlock, horticulturist with the Louisiana State University Agricultural Extension Service. The primary purpose of pruning is to train the tree. This spacing of branches makes them less apt to break, and makes spraying, thinning and harvesting more convenient. SMALLER TREES Pruning results in smaller trees and lower total yield. The smaller size of the tree is caused both by removal of the wood and by the smaller amount of leaf surface present to manufacture food for future growth. As a result of the tree being kept in bounds, expenses for care and maintenance are reduced. Harvesting can be done from the ground rather than from ladders. Trees generally live longer because the limbs remain in a more vigorous, better growing condition. Spurlock said that pruning should get under way when the tree is set out. This pruning should consist of cutting limbs back to about one-inch stubs and removing terminal bud, or heading back. The most important pruning is done at the end of the first growing season. At this time the scaffold or primary branches are selected, and others are removed. ANGLE These scaffold branches, said the horticulturist, should be arranged like spokes in a wheel as the tree is viewed from above. The angle of attachment of the limb to the tree should be wide. This wide crotch is much stronger than a narrow one. The number of scaffold branches should vary from three to seven depending on the kind of fruit and individual trees. Pruning in later years will be primarily a matter of keeping the limbs thinned out and heading the tree back when it grows too tall. Damaged, diseased or dead limbs should also be removed when pruning. If large limbs are pruned off the cut surface should be protected to prevent rotting and the entry of insects or diseases. This can be done by application of wound treating compounds sold commercially. Most of these compounds are asphalt based and prevent moisture from entering the wound. Horticulturist Spurlock advised cutting off limbs flush with the point of attachment, since a stub will be slow to heal and may start rotting.

Burnett Rites Slated Today At Funeral Chapel

Funeral services for William Barry (Bill) Burnett, 48, of 601 Erin Avenue, Monroe, were slated for 2:30 p.m. Monday at the James Coker Peters Funeral home in Greenville, Texas. Interment was to follow in the Forest Park cemetery in Greenville. Mr. Burnett suffered a stroke at his residence early Sunday morning and died shortly after arrival at a local hospital. A resident of Monroe for the past seven years, he was superintendent of a Monroe bakery. He was a member of the Cavanaugh Methodist Church in Greenville, Texas. The body was carried overland to Greenville by Peters Funeral Home of Monroe. Mr. Burnett is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Vivian Burnett, of Houston, Texas; one daughter, Mrs. Larry Parisey of Monroe; one son, Billy John Burnett, Monroe; and a sister, Mrs. Herbert Rither, Houston.

Both residential and commercial ceilings are done by the Roselawn firm. And they stock the best patterns of Johns-Manville, Flintkote, Gold Bond and Armstrong. Dupuy can suspend ceilings, glue, nail or staple. Whatever your ceiling problem, he has a ceiling tile to take care of it. In addition to the flooring and ceiling lines, Dupuy carries a complete stock of high pressure laminates. You have a choice of selecting from several top lines. Factory trained crews install all the above products, or if you prefer, you can buy them and install them yourself. Dupuy will be happy to furnish the necessary literature for any do-it-yourself project. Feel free to drop in and browse without obligation at Dupuy's. They will drop by your house or business and give you a free estimate on your job, if you prefer.

Kills Husband

EL CAJON, Calif. (AP)—Victor Rojas, 44, a Democrat, wanted to watch Sen. John F. Kennedy on television. His wife, Norma Jean Rojas, 34, a Republican, wanted to watch Lawrence Welk. In the argument, said deputies, she stabbed him fatally with a paring knife. Mrs. Rojas was booked at county jail on suspicion of murder following the incident Saturday night.

Climate Control Owner Wins Week Vacation In Bermuda

For high sales of General Electric Heating and Air Conditioning systems during a 4-month period, Curley Ketchell, owner of Climate Control, recently won a free trip to Bermuda as guests of GE. He and Mrs. Ketchell flew from Monroe to New Orleans, then to Jacksonville and on to Bermuda, along with 200 other GE winners from throughout the country. The Ketchells stayed at the Castle Harbor hotel on the island, where they were extensively entertained by Calypso performers and a steel drum band. The trip was the annual GE outing for dealers who have a high quota of sales during the contest period. The Ketchells took many rolls of film, and expressed amazement at the wonderful climate. They wish to express gratitude to their many customers for making the wonderful vacation possible. Curley wishes to announce that he can install a GE heating system in your home now, with provisions to add air conditioning next spring. Of course, Climate Control can service any make of heating equipment and all in need of service or systems are urged to Dial FA 5-5638.

MR. AND MRS. Curley Ketchell are shown here en route to Bermuda for a week's vacation made possible by high sales of General Electric Heating and Air Conditioning by Ketchell's firm, Climate Control, 621 Louisville. They wish to thank their many customers for making the recent trip possible.

Ike Will Retire At Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower has picked his farm home in Gettysburg—a haven for weekend rests during his years as president — as his permanent home after he retires. Eisenhower volunteered this information to his Gettysburg pastor as they walked down the aisle of the Gettysburg Presbyterian church. Some worshippers overheard the President's remarks to the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill.

Who's Bluffing, Critic Wonders

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — As we approach election day, I get the impression that both sides are confident.

The impression emerged as I watched NBC-TV's "Meet the Press" Sunday night, which offered a double-scoop as the Democratic and Republican campaign managers splashed around in political tides, waves, surges and trends.

As a collector of pre-election manifestations of confidence, I found this hour to be a goldmine. Robert Kennedy, for his brother Jack, and Leonard Hall, for Dick Nixon, showed off their last-minute high-flying, high-confidence quotients in the time-honored tradition. My score card shows that Hall won. He didn't hedge his confidence.

Young Bobby led off by being uncertain. Referring to his brother's prospects, he said, "If everything turns out all right on Tuesday." However, he soon got into the swing with:

"I'm confident. I think we have a lead."

"There is a trend to Sen. Kennedy."

"I think Sen. Kennedy will win."

"I think we're going to win."

"I'm extremely confident. There is a definite trend in our direction."

Then, he wavered again with:

"We're going to have it wait until Tuesday."

Hall came on strong. None of this business about "if everything turns out all right" for him. He waded right in with:

"It isn't going to be a landslide but it's going to be Nixon and Lodge."

"In the last 10 days our surge has begun."

"The winner on election day will be Nixon and Lodge."

"The trend and surge are in our direction."

"Mr. Kennedy made his blitz and didn't keep it up."

And, finally, Hall said, "Mr. Nixon, when he is elected president, on Nov. 8."

"Now let's wait until Tuesday, to see who was bluffing."

Dinah Shore's NBC-TV hour Sunday night presented some lovely sights, songs and dances that were filmed last summer during her visits to Spain and Portugal.

While Miss Shore tossed in a couple of Tin Pan Alley bouquets, for the most part the program concentrated on authentic flavor in authentic settings. It was filmed in color and filled with eye-filling beauty. The songs and dances were staged in outdoor settings, with many landmarks in view.

Probe Convinces Police No Harm Meant By Guns

CHICAGO (AP) — Detectives say an investigation convinces them two men who toled guns when they turned out to greet Sen. John F. Kennedy Friday night had no intent of harming him.

Alejandro Jaime Cruz, 23, and Israel Dabney, 61, went free on $500 bond Sunday, pending hearing Nov. 13 on charges of carrying concealed weapons.

Cruz was seized 20 feet behind Kennedy's open convertible. Police said they found a loaded .25 caliber automatic in his coat pocket.

Dabney was seized at Chicago Stadium an hour and a half before Kennedy arrived for a rally. A .30 caliber revolver was found in a brown paper sack he carried, officers said.

9 Persons Killed In Quebec Wreck

TEMPLETON, Que. (AP) — Nine persons were killed Sunday night and at least 10 others injured when a bus and a station wagon collided head-on on a slight curve near this town 10 miles east of Ottawa.

The station wagon penetrated five feet into the bus. All five persons in the car were killed. So were bus driver Paul Poirier, 30, of Buckingham, and three of 17 passengers.

A light snow was not believed a factor in the crash. A policeman said it was falling too lightly to obscure the drivers' vision and that most of it had blown off the highway.

The bus was en route from Hull to Buckingham.

The driver of the station wagon was Roland Lavigne, 23, of Hull. With him were his brother Emile, 21; two Ottawa men, Patrick G. Mayville, 21, and Paul Sauve, 19, and a fifth person who was not identified.

Views Of Our Readers

UNPLEDGED ELECTORS

To The Editor:
In an editorial appearing in the Monroe Morning World of October 29th, 1960, the writer states his views regarding the unpledged elector slate and the coming election, without regard to the true facts. Since this editorial represents the viewpoint of only one man who endeavors to discredit or belittle the unpledged elector slate, it seems only fair that the views and hopes of the hundreds of thousands of honest and sincere voters who will support this slate should be heard.
Using the editorial's example, but supposing the largest number of votes went to the unpledged slate of electors, this is what could be done with the unpledged electors when the votes in the State are counted. Let's say:
Kennedy gets 32 percent
Nixon gets 33 percent
Unpledged gets 35 percent

Amendments We Suggest

Last Sunday the World and News-Star published our recommendations to voters on each of the 55 state constitutional amendments to be on the ballot Tuesday, along with our reasons in each instance. Under the percentages stated above, neither Kennedy nor Nixon would get Louisiana's ten electoral votes; and, if the national election should be anywhere near as close as the "pollsters" would have people believe, Louisiana thus might put a compromise candidate in the White House. However, at their discretion, the unpledged electors could cast their ten electoral votes for Kennedy or Nixon, provided one of them would meet the demands of the South on States' Rights, Civil Rights, Tidelands, etc. As we all know, by withholding the unpledged electors' votes, the election of the President could be thrown into the House of Representatives where each State has one vote regardless of size or population.

In view of the above, it is entirely possible that the people in Louisiana could elect the unpledged electors and thereby again have the opportunity of taking a very important part, along with the unpledged electors in other states, in electing the next president of the United States, as they did in 1876 under the leadership of the then Governor Francis T. Nicholls. At that time Governor Nicholls voted Louisiana's unpledged electoral votes to Rutherford B. Hayes, provided the federal troops would be withdrawn from the south, together with other concessions.

The editorials in some of the leading "dailies" would have you believe that the unpledged elector slate hasn't a chance because this is not true. These men are so called because they did not want a candidate to whom they were bound. There are at present 537 electoral votes to be cast on December 19th. Mr. Kennedy or Mr. Nixon must receive 269 votes to have a required majority in order to be elected president. Now, let's say Mr. Nixon has 265 votes (4 short of a majority) and Louisiana is withholding 10 electoral votes. Being this near to the presidency of the United States, don't you think that Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy would be seeking desperately to get those 10 unpledged votes? Don't you think it possible to then demand some compromises from one of them on states' rights, civil rights, tidelands, etc.? Do you think they would stand on their party platform, without wavering, with the presidency only a mere 10 "unpledged elector" votes away?

In view of the above, the unpledged elector slate is the only chance the real Democrats have of preserving our southern way of life.

Regardless of how you are registered you can vote on November 8 for the unpledged electors (Lever No. 5) without jeopardizing your right to register or vote.

Do not be misled into voting for electors who are pledged to vote for a candidate, Nixon or Kennedy, who now stand firmly behind a platform which is bound to lead our country into socialism, communism, or some other "ism."

While it is generally agreed that Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy are the top contenders for the presidency, and it is almost certain that the unpledged electors will have to deal with one of these men, they are not bound by party oath to cast their votes for either. What the unpledged electors are fighting for is bargaining position. The candidate pledging the greater restoration of constitutional rights which have been stripped from the south will receive the deciding votes of the electors.

Hydrogen Bomb Key Figure Says Defense Terrible

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Edward Teller, key figure in the development of the hydrogen bomb, said Sunday the nation's civil defense is in "such a tragic state of unpreparedness that we are practically inviting attack."

Too many Americans, he told newsmen, have an attitude that "all we can do is throw up our hands, take a suicide pill and die."

Actually, he said, most Americans and the American way of life can survive a nuclear attack if civil defenses are prepared.

He said the United States should construct shelters "that people in cities can reach on foot in 10 minutes," stockpile important materials such as food and machine tools and form a unit to clean up essential areas and keep order.

SAMPLE BALLOT

Mark this ballot and take it with you to the polls; it will aid you to vote quickly. Remember to vote the straight ticket all you have to do is to pull the large handles by the emblems. To vote on the amendments you must turn each pointer separately on the voting machine. There will be a number of other names listed on the various ballots, other than the ones shown here, but you do not have to vote for these unless there is a race in which two or more parties have a candidate.

Provincial Vote In Italy Hits Record Stride

ROME (AP) — Italy's two-day election of town and provincial governments drew to a close today with indications of a record vote.

Nearly 70 per cent of the nation's 38 million eligible voters — subject to fine if they do not cast ballots — turned out Sunday.

According to past experience, that indicated a total turnout topping 90 per cent. The percentage ran about the same in the last local elections, in 1956, but there were eight million fewer eligible voters.

The voting for governing councils in 78 provinces and 6,919 cities and towns was the quietest since World War II.

There were eight deaths reported at the polls, but all were from natural causes.

Most observers did not expect the results, to be known starting late tonight, to show any important change in the relative strength of Italy's half-dozen major parties.

Admiral Cites Chinese Claims

MANILA (AP) — Adm. Harry D. Felt, U.S. commander in chief in the Pacific, told newsmen today he is willing to take the word of Nationalist Chinese leaders that Quemoy and Matsu can be defended.

"Quemoy and Matsu belong to the Republic of China," Felt said. "The Chinese say they're definitely defensible. I'm willing to take their word for it."

"I AM AN 'UNPLEDGED ELECTOR'.

I HAVE NO PLATFORM.

I HAVE NO ORGANIZATION.

I HAVE NO CANDIDATE.

I CANNOT WIN.

A VOTE FOR ME IS A VOTE FOR KENNEDY

IF THE WHOLE TRUTH WERE TOLD . . . this would be the statement of the so-called "States Rights-Democratic-Fusion" Party. They should say to the voters: "I will split the conservative vote in Louisiana just as I did in South Carolina in 1956: Harry F. Byrd of Virginia was our candidate; Governor Jimmy Byrnes was our party head. The majority of the vote was conservative and we split it, thereby throwing the state to our mutual enemy, the arch-liberal Adlai Stevenson."

As of today, the race in Louisiana is neck and neck between Nixon and Kennedy. EVERY CONSERVATIVE VOTE THAT IS CAST FOR THE "STATES RIGHTS-DEMOCRATIC-FUSION" PARTY IS ONE MORE VOTE TAKEN AWAY FROM NIXON AND GIVEN TO KENNEDY!

THINK ABOUT THIS WHEN YOU VOTE!

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution.

Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. —ADP.

CHATTER

NEW YORK (UPI) —The Value

Line Investment Survey reports that a massive decline in earnings seems in store next year for railway equipment manufacturers.

The September 30th backlog of orders is below even the recession-ridden results of 1958 and the rate of new orders is alarmingly meager, the survey says. As a result, it adds, deliveries next year will be down and profit margins are expected to narrow.

Value Line also says that the carriers themselves face declining earnings and revenues in 1961.

B. K. Thurlow of Winslow, Cohn

& Stetson says this is the time to sell cyclical stocks and overexploited glamor issues. Many of these, he says, have only recently completed massive distributive tops indicating substantially lower prices over the long term.

Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne,

Noel & Co. believes that regardless of any possible stimulating news or election results the Dow-

Jones industrial average will not penetrate the 600 resistance barrier. He feels the list will remain near the upper part of its 35 point trading range for the time being.

officiating.

Interment, under the direction of Hixson Brothers Funeral Home,

will follow in the Welcome

Home cemetery at Grayson.

Mrs. Peterson, 40, apparently shot herself in the chest with a

.410 gauge shotgun. The Ouachita parish coroner, Dr. John P.

Burton, ruled death was due to suicide.

Mrs. Peterson was found in a combination bath and utility room by her husband after he had kicked the door in.

Ouachita parish deputies said they found the woman on the floor of the room with the gun beside her. She had been shot in the left breast, deputies said.

In addition to her husband, Corbin Peterson, Sr., she is survived by six children, all of West Mon-

Woman Reports Purse Missing

Audrey Sterart, 311 Stone Ave., Monroe, yesterday reported to West Monroe Police that her purse, containing about $100 in cash, was missing.

She said she left the purse in a rest room of a West Monroe night club and that when she discovered it was missing she went back to the rest room but the purse was gone.

West Monroe Police are investigating.

Gremillion Sets Jonesville Talk

JONESVILLE (Special) — Jack Gremillion, attorney general of the State of Louisiana, will be the featured speaker at the meeting of the Jonesville Lions club on Tuesday, Nov. 15, according to George Griffing, program chairman.

Gremillion will meet with the club at noon at the Cathoula Courts Cafe. He did not disclose what his speech would be on.

Anyone wishing to meet with the club to hear the State's Attorney General, should get in touch with Clarence Courts, secretary of the club, or Griffing, well in advance of the meeting.

Puerto Rican Candidates End Campaign

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UPI) — Puerto Rican political parties today wound up one of the most bitterly contested campaigns in years, heightened by a clash between the island's three Roman Catholic bishops and Gov. Luis Munoz Marin and his Popular Democratic party.

Munoz was considered a heavy favorite for re-election in Tuesday's balloting in spite of the opposition from the prelates in this predominantly Roman Catholic commonwealth of the United States.

In pastoral letters read in churches throughout the island, the bishops called on Roman Catholics not to vote for the Popular Democratic party because of the church view that it encourages abortion and sterilization and impedes religious instructions.

Munoz closed the door on any truce with the church at a rally Saturday night. He told 5,000 listeners that the party had "suffered an aggression and...deserved and expects a profound apology" from the bishops.

He said that Puerto Ricans voting for his party would be, in effect, voting for the protection of their personal freedoms.

Passman, Jackson Speak Tonight At DeMolay Banquet

State Supt. of Education Shelby M. Jackson and Rep. Otto E. Passman are scheduled to speak tonight at the DeMolay banquet, set for 6:30 at Ouachita Parish High School.

The banquet will climax the DeMolay "treasure hunt," which has been in progress in the Twin Cities for the past month.

The "treasure hunt" began as the local order of the DeMolay observed DeMolay week in Ouachita Parish.

Proceeds of the hunt will go to help finance an educational trip to Washington, D.C., for the order next spring.

DeMolay officials said winners in the hunt will be presented with their prizes at tonight's event. Door prizes will also be awarded.

Arraign Negroes In Shooting Fray

JONESVILLE (Special) — Two Jonesville Negroes who "shot it out" in the Yellow Cat bar last Thursday night, Oct. 27, will be arraigned in district court in Harrisonburg on Monday, Nov. 21, according to Deputy Sheriff J. W. Adams.

The two men were identified by officers as William Bonds and J. W. "Kiddy" Washington.

According to reports, both men pulled guns and blazed away at each other. Bonds was wounded in the leg and taken to a Pineville hospital for treatment. He was to have been released from the hospital on Wednesday and will be booked when picked up by parish officials.

Washington was arrested on Thursday night following the shooting "scrape," and placed in the parish jail, booked with assault with a deadly weapon. He was released on Monday under a $500 bond.

Mrs. Mahoney, 76, Dies; Funeral Set Wednesday

Mrs. George L. Mahoney, 76-year-old resident of 18 Ingleside Dr., Monroe, was pronounced dead on arrival at a local hospital this morning following a long illness.

Funeral services are scheduled for 3 p.m. Wednesday at Mulhearn Chapel with the Rev. T. Earl Ogg officiating. Interment will be in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Mahoney was a member of College Place Baptist Church. She is survived by her husband; one son, George Bert Mahoney, Monroe; two brothers, Arch Gaylor, Memphis, Tenn., and Charles Gaylor, El Dorado, Ark.; one sister, Mrs. Mattie Tyree, Longdale, Calif.; one grandchild, and four great-grandchildren.

Turkey Supper Planned Here

Plans will be made tonight by members of El Miro Temple No. 187 for a turkey supper scheduled Thursday, Nov. 17.

The meeting tonight is set for 8 in Castle Hall.

The turkey supper will be held for members of Stonewall Lodge No. 8, in conjunction with the El Miro group.

Mrs. H. Murphy, Accident Victim, Said Recovering

COLUMBIA (Special) — Mrs. Herman I. Murphy, of Bastrop, was reported Monday to be improving from injuries received in an automobile accident nov. 6 of Pollock, Oct. 8 in which her husband and Lonnie Murphy, 15, a nephew of Lonnie's father, Charlie and a sister, Ouida Mae, were killed.

In a brief hospital interview at the Caldwell General Hospital, Mrs. Murphy said she was "doing pretty good."

Her husband said Mrs. Murphy is still in heavy traction and doctors have taken more X-rays.

Generally, no visitors are allowed yet and members of the family can remain with her for only a few minutes at a time.

When she learned a newspaper reporter was near, Mrs. Murphy, her voice not strong, asked to see the reporter.

"Will you tell all our friends how grateful we are to them for all they have done for us? Tell them I am doing pretty good, and that God will heal me," the bed-ridden Mrs. Murphy said.

After a month in the hospital, suffering injuries and memories of a horrible highway accident, Mrs. Murphy didn't mention how much she has suffered, but indicated she was thinking of recovering completely.

FOR US IN LOUISIANA...

BIG QUESTION NUMBER FOUR WHICH MAN WOULD YOU CHOOSE?

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER HAS SAID OF NIXON...

"There is no man in the history of America who has had such a careful preparation as has Vice President Nixon for carrying out the duties of the Presidency. There hasn't been a principal administrative meeting among the heads of government that he has not attended as an active participant. In every country that he has visited the United States has gained many additional friends. The success attained is a tribute to his dedication and to his wisdom."

SUPPORTERS OF JACK KENNEDY ARE ON RECORD, TOO

NEGRO CONGRESSMAN ADAM CLAYTON POWELL (HARLEM DISTRICT)...

"Only Jack Kennedy is pledged to support all the program... Under my chairmanship, minimum wage bill, Federal aid to education, scholarship assistance for African students... National FEPC. Vote Kennedy and show America that Harlem is on the March." (Letter to constituents reproduced in ad in News-Star November 4)

HARRY TRUMAN WONDERED...

"Senator, are you certain that you are quite ready for the country or that the country is ready for you in the role of President in January, 1961? I am greatly concerned and troubled about the situation we are up against in the world now and in the immediate future. That is why I would hope that someone with the greatest possible maturity and experience would be available at this time." (New York Herald Tribune, 7/3/60)

LYNDON JOHNSON OBJECTED...

"I am not prepared to apologize to Mr. Khrushchev—are you? I am not prepared to send regrets to Mr. Khrushchev—are you? (Shouting to a Washington State Democratic Convention at Spokane) (New York Times, 5/31/60)

ADLAI STEVENSON WORRIED...

"The amount of money being spent on Kennedy's campaign is phenomenal, probably the highest amount spent on a campaign in history." (Newsweek, 2/29/60)

WAYNE MORSE CHARGED...

"His statements in regard to campaign expenses are further evidences as to his lack of qualifications for the Presidency. The American people should make it clear to Senator Kennedy that the White House will never be put up for sale... it is obvious that the truth is not in him." (Baltimore Sun, 5/29/60)

Peterson Rites Slated Tuesday In Columbia

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilma Williams Peterson, 40-year-old Ward Five woman who was fatally shot Sunday morning, will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church in Columbia with the Rev. Jimmy Bolton and the Rev. Lionel Crowell officiating.

Interment, under the direction of Hixson Brothers Funeral Home, will follow in the Welcome Home cemetery at Grayson.

Mrs. Peterson, 40, apparently shot herself in the chest with a .410 gauge shotgun. The Ouachita parish coroner, Dr. John P. Burton, ruled death was due to suicide.

Mrs. Peterson was found in a combination bath and utility room by her husband after he had kicked the door in.

Ouachita parish deputies said they found the woman on the floor of the room with the gun beside her. She had been shot in the left breast deputies said.

In addition to her husband, Corbin Peterson, Sr., she is survived by six children, all of West Monroe. Bobby Joe, Billy Ray and Sharon Diane; four brothers, Edgar T. Williams, Buddy Williams, Nelson Williams and Lloyd Williams, all of Columbia; six sisters, Mrs. Doris Rice, Mrs. Jean Edgers, Mrs. Hazel Hanbrick, and Mrs. Pancy Velly, all of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. Betty Eason of Monroe, and Mrs. Betty Neche of Vidalia; and her mother,

'Fiorello' Scheduled In December

rently playing on a standing-room-only basis in New York and Chicago, will appear in Monroe for one performance Friday, Dec. 2.

To be staged at the Neville Auditorium, the musical is on an exclusive tour and is a feature attraction of the Northeast State Concerts Association.

The famous opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," will be presented at Neville Nov. 28.

A few season tickets are remaining and may be bought at the Neville box office during these two performances, officials said. They may also be obtained from the dean's office, division of fine arts, Northeast College.

"Fiorello!" has been rated a solid hit for well over a year. It is based on the early career of the energetic little man, Fiorello LaGuardia, whose personality won the affection of New Yorkers during the 30's and 40's when he was mayor of the city.

IN NEW YORK

Rival Predictions Collide Head-On

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Republican claims of 11th-hour gains in New York collided head-on today with continuing signs that Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential nominee, was well ahead in the race for the state's 45 electoral votes.

On the GOP side, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Leonard W. Hall, Republican national campaign manager, declared that Vice President Richard M. Nixon had surged ahead as the result of a stepped-up drive in the state last week.

The GOP state campaign manager, Lyle W. Hornbeck, predicted that the Republican presidential nominee would carry New York by a quarter of a million votes Tuesday. Democrats doubled Hornbeck's figures—in reverse. State Chairman Michael H. Prendergast forecast victory by a half million votes or more for Kennedy.

Various polls bolstered the Democratic hopes. One of them was the New York Daily News poll, completed Sunday. The newspaper reported that Kennedy received 54.8 per cent and Nixon 43.2 per cent of 30,000 straw votes from across the state.

New York's 45 electoral votes are a choice plum because they form the largest bloc in the nation.

The turnout of voters in the state is expected to top the record 7.2 million in 1952, when President Eisenhower ran the first carry some upstate cities and ocratic since the 1936 landslide time.

Registration is at an all-time high of 8.3 million, including 3.6 million in heavily Democratic New York City.

The Weather Bureau forecast fair weather Tuesday in eastern New York and wet snow or rain in the western half of the state.

Rockefeller sounded the Republican theme Saturday when he said he had found "a current of steadily rising support" for the GOP ticket.

Prendergast claimed that Democrats were making inroads in solidly Republican rural areas. He predicted Democrats would
